A CITY ON A HILL!

By Gordon F. Nelson

"A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid." (Matt. 5:14)

In the context of the scripture, the "city" is used as a type of every true believer in Jesus Christ. "Ye are the light of the world. A CITY THAT IS SET ON AN HILL CANNOT BE HID. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your FATHER which is in heaven." (Matt. 5:14-16)

Our forefathers, who founded this great nation called America, were from England, if I recall my history correctly. Due to their faith in Jesus Christ, England persecuted all true believers. The Christians of England fled to Holland. It was there the Christians built a boat to sail and create a haven for all true believers of Jesus Christ in the New World.

The first symbol they planted on the shores of this New World was the cross. To this day, America has no king, except King Jesus, but the cross today is despised by the liberal theologians and politicians that have re-written history to prove these men were as rotten as the men of this hour. Are you so naïve as to believe that the founding fathers would legalize sodomy? that Benjamin Franklin would condone late term abortion to murder a baby as it is leaving its mother's womb?

Republicans Are Defeated In Attempt To Stop Democrat's Filibuster

The Republicans failed to initiate cloture, the only procedure by which the Senate can vote to place a time limit on consideration of a bill or other matter, thereby overcoming a filibuster. Under the cloture rule, the Senate may limit consideration of a pending matter to 30 additional hours, but only by vote of three-fifths of the full senate, normally 60 votes. Without the invoking of this procedure, in effect, the Democrats can control the Judiciary branch of our government.

When Clinton nominated Ruth Bader Ginsberg, an ACLU attorney, to the Supreme Court, she was voted in on a simple majority vote of 51 votes. This was the time the Republicans needed to filibuster, but they never made a peep. Orin Hatch, a Mormon from Utah, desires to play fair and not muddy the water. We are gentlemen! Wake up, Orin, you're playing with the devil that is chewing away at our foundation of government.

For a Bush nominee to be accepted on the Supreme Court, or any lower court, the Republicans have to muster 60 votes. Without the benefit of cloture, none of his nominees will make it. If I were a Republican Senator today, I could never be as cool, calm and collected as Orin Hatch.

How Democrats have managed to control the Senate and be the minority party is plain treason. George Bush is the Commander-in-Chief, but you'd think the Black Knights of our Congress, Hillary Clinton, Charles Schumer and Ted Kennedy, were the masters of deception and can do anything, like the magicians of Pharaoh's court.

"If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?" (Ps. 11:3) It is time for another Boston Tea Party, right on Ted Kennedy's front lawn. We need to once again hear a Senator scream out, "Give me liberty, or give me death!" as Patrick Henry once did. What price is too great for liberty? Men are dying in Iraq today for the Black Knights of the Northeast sector of the USA, not for Old Glory as they believe.

The Captain Is Outraged!

I haven't been this stirred since Tom Patten sold our church out from under the congregation and pocketed a quarter of a million dollars. Back in 1946, that was a lot of money. The Moose Lodge paid a half million to Dr. La Bebe to purchase the City Club Hotel in Oakland which was our church. The Kingfish only paid a quarter of a million, plus the church lowered the mortgage over a five-year period of time, thus increasing the "loot" of the Patten's theft even more. Thus, the Kingfish used the church for his own real estate ventures, and the sad thing is, "and my people love to have it so." (Jer. 5:31)

Do I blame C. Thomas Patten? Not at all. I blame the people who, like in Samuel's day, cried for a king to rule over them so they could be like the heathen nations surrounding them. "Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel...and said unto him...now make us a king to judge us like all the nations." (1 Sam. 8:4-5)

America is unique among all the nations of the world. We have no king! But when it comes to our Pentecostal religion, the woods are full of kings and outright dictators over the souls of men! "While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage." (2 Pet. 2:19) Do you want a king to rule over you as did the children of Israel in the days of Samuel? Join the Pentecostal church with all its signs and wonders. But the one "sign and wonder" that they do not have is any foundation, or government. You can join one of these "kingdoms," but you learn quickly to keep your mouth shut, for one man rules absolutely in this kingdom by his three-name, non-profit religious incorporation. I've looked over hundreds of kingdoms, and they are all very similar; many reading that these three are the only legal voters—the president is the pastor; the vice president is his wife; and the secretary-treasurer is often a relative. A quorum is established with the pastor and his wife over breakfast.

Pentecostalism Is Without Foundations

You are without excuse, because the information is recorded with the Secretary of State, and made available to the public. Many of them, like Perry Stone and Paul Crouch, will openly tell you on television, “Yes, we own you!” Then they will give you some scripture to uphold and defend dictatorship. Later, down the road, you hear about these leaders in the news, Jimmy Swaggart, Jim and Tammy Bakker, La Bebe Patten, Robert Tilton (the list is endless), and you wonder what happened. They got drunk on the power YOU bestowed upon them. They are but clay, just like you. Could you be entrusted with $5 million? You’d probably go to hell for just $1 million. Condemn Tom Patten, Kenneth Logie, W.V. Grant II, Leroy Jenkins, A.A. Allen, Cecil J. Lowry, Larry Lea, Gene D. Bomar, if you wish, because they couldn’t be trusted with $50 or $100 million you gave them. You don’t seem to understand, “their feet are made of clay.”

How did it happen? You made it happen by finding a man you wanted to be the king over your heart. Someday that longing to have a man fill your heart will be fulfilled in a person the Bible calls the Antichrist. You’ll love him, too! “And all the world wondered after the beast... saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?” (Rev. 13:3-4)

I have already met the challenge of a beast of Pentecost, Mr. Kingfish himself, who once roared from his pulpit, “Who is able to make war with me? If you have plenty of smart lawyers, one of these religious non-profit incorporations, and plenty of money, you can do anything and get by.” (Which in Patten’s case included the rape of teenage choir girls.)

There is nothing more stupid on planet earth than a tongue-talker who has recently found a new king to rule over his heart. I’ve been in this labyrinth of Holy Rollers for over 60 years, and believe me, nothing changes; only the names of the “little gods” that the tongue-talkers decide to follow. The salt loses its savour because no one learns from history. If you can’t learn from history, history keeps on repeating itself. When will you cry, “Enough is enough”?

Pentecostalism Prepares One To Follow The Leader—A Man

Is this what Pentecostalism is preparing you for? I’ve already forecast that the Antichrist will make his debut on TBN. Prince Charles of England appeared alongside President Bush on TBN news during his recent visit to England. Read Tim Cohen’s book, The Antichrist and a Cup of Tea, obtainable through Jewish Voice International. What is Tim LaHaye going to do with his Left Behind series of books when the Antichrist is already visible on public television?

Jerry Falwell Is Totally Unprepared!

Jerry Falwell will be in shock. “You, Mr. Antichrist, were not supposed to show your face until after the rapture. How can I explain your being present on this earth now to my congregation?” The Bible only deals with incidents and staging of the prophecy, not in “day nor hour.” Everything must be in place first. God has been waiting on George Bush to visit London because England is to set up the correct platform for the actors to come on stage. It is soon show time, and the curtain will go up as we all witness the final show called, “Daniel’s 70th Week.” Oh, you’ll still be here to see the first half of the show!

“Now we beseech you, brethren, by THE COMING of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by OUR GATHERING TOGETHER UNTO HIM (the rapture), that ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that THE DAY OF CHRIST (the rapture) is at hand. LET NO MAN DECEIVE YOU (not even Tim LaHaye, nor Jerry Falwell) by any means: FOR THAT DAY (the rapture) SHALL NOT COME, except there come a FALLING AWAY FIRST, AND THAT MAN OF SIN BE REVEALED, the son of perdition.” (2 Thes. 2:1-3) George Bush is walking innocently into a snake’s lair that he cannot escape from.

British not all tilted to left

Editor’s note: Legions of protesters took to the streets of London this week during President Bush’s formal state visit. Not all Brits were hostile to Bush. Following is an excerpt of an open letter to Bush from novelist Frederick Forsyth published in the London Guardian this week.

You will find yourself assailed on every hand by some pretty pretentious characters collectively known as the British left. They traditionally believe they have a monopoly on morality and that your recent actions preclude you from the club. You opposed and destroyed the world’s most blood-encrusted dictator. This is quite unforgivable.

I beg you to take no notice. The British left intermittently erupts like a pustule upon the buttock of a rather good country. Seventy years ago it opposed mobilization against Adolf Hitler and worshipped the other genocide, Josef Stalin.

It has marched for Mao, Ho Chi Minh, Khrushchev, Brezhnev and Andropov. It has slobbered over Ceausescu and Mugabe. It has demonstrated against everything and everyone American for a century. Broadly speaking, it hates your country first, mine second.

Eleven years ago something dreadful happened. Maggie was ousted, Ronald retired, the Berlin wall fell and Gorby abolished communism. All the left’s idols fell and its demons retired. For a decade there was nothing really to hate. But thank the Lord for his limitless mercy. Now they can applaud Saddam, bin Laden, Kim Jong-Il...and hate a God-fearing Texan. So hallelujah and have a good time.

(11/21/03 Arizona Republic)

The street marchers in England, placards held high showing their displeasure, revealed their intense hatred for that city on a hill, called America. “Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free...” and we will love and show compassion for these immigrants coming to our shores. Both my parents accepted that invitation and left Sweden for the New World called, America, where I was born in Rawlins, Wyoming.

George W. Chooses Lesser Of Two Evils

Bush chose the lesser of two evils, he thought, in seeking out England for help instead of dealing with France and the United Nations. Some are proclaiming this one act of visiting London and publicly speaking to the British people, as George W. Bush’s finest hour with regard to his legacy. George broke the ice in this alliance with Europe. Remember, Richard Nixon broke the ice to form an alliance with China. Historians claim he will be more revered over this one act than anything else he ever did as President.

In reality, it is more like Shakespeare said in one of his plays, “All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players.” We play our part, and suddenly we disappear as the grass of the field. “For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: but the word of the Lord endureth for ever.” (1 Pet. 1:24-25)

George W. Bush will be gone, but the choice he made to turn to England for help, is a notable one. It would be comparable to Moses, who after reaching the Promised Land, had decided to return to Egypt. One could compare it to Jacob returning to the land of his nativity, as well. England has more mosques than Methodist churches. In London, many of the Christian churches have been purchased and turned into mosques. The British have learned how to adjust to this god of Allah. Perhaps, it is easier as the British embrace a humanistic value system.

America Was Called To Be An Eagle And Go It Alone

America was like an eaglet trusting in no king or queen. We made it for 214 years, the longest tenure of any republic in the history of the world. She was truly a “city on a hill” that gave a lot of hope to those oppressed by dictators and kings of this earth. To create such a city in Iraq, the heart of this Muslim world has stirred up the “prince of Persia,” Satan himself. “Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day...thy words were heard...But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days.” (Dan. 10:12-13) How does Bush think he can create a city of light in a dark country? It took Daniel 21 days to receive an answer from God in prayer because of the demon power in that area of Iran and Iraq.

President Bush has run into a religion of Allah that is more dedicated to Allah than we Christians are to Jesus Christ. We, as Christians, are into living for Christ and the prosperity gospel, not dying. But the Bible says, “and they loved not their lives unto the death.” (Rev. 12:11) Are we Christians willing to match this dedication the Muslims have for Allah? Time may soon answer that question for us.

Since President Bush has sought help from an “arm of flesh,” the Queen of England, America is no longer the eagle that she was called to be by the founding fathers. Have you ever prayed for President Bush? “I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; for kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour.” (1 Tim. 2:1-3) Christian Americans won’t even vote, let alone pray! They believe we will all be raptured out of here tomorrow, so why bother? Where did they get this wisdom? from our pulpits and books reflecting the doctrines portrayed in the series by Tim LaHaye’s, Left Behind.

Is it any wonder that Christ asks the questions, “Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find (the) faith on the earth?” (Lk. 18:8) The church is challenged, I “exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for THE FAITH which was once delivered unto the saints.” (Jude 3) Part of this contending is to make sure that the house of God “hath foundations.” “For he looked for a city which hath foundations (government), whose builder and maker is God.” (Heb. 11:10) Do you care if your church “hath foundations,” or are you merely caught up in the hyped up music?

Your Gethsemane Is A Type Of The Coming Demise Of America

“And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.” (Mk. 14:32) Then Jesus took his inner circle, Peter, James and John, with Him deeper into the garden of Gethsemane. Have you ever been to Gethsemane in agonizing prayer before God? Jesus reveals to them his true feelings, “My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.” (Mk. 14:34)

Jesus left his inner circle with their instructions to pray. “And he went forward a little (Jesus is all alone now), and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.” (Mk. 14:35-36)

There is a prophetic word here in that we are about to enter into our own Gethsemane. On September 11, 2001, we had our wake up call that the terrorists of Al Qaeda hate our guts! They plan to destroy America. Did America repent and turn to God? Since that time, the Supreme Court has legalized sodomy. Massachusetts has announced that gay marriage is legal in their state. Michael Jackson, an alleged pedophile, has been arrested. September 11, 2001 has come and gone, “And I Didn’t Hear Anyone Pray,” as the song goes.

Jesus “saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?” (Mk. 14:37) Then He leaves His disciples to pray again the same prayer. “And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.” (Mk. 14:40)

Finally, Jesus “cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come.” (Mk. 14:41)

You can sleep on America; your President has passed the baton to the Queen of this earth. It no longer matters how you vote or whether you pray. You’ll soon see the reenactment of Gibbon’s book, The Rise and Fall of the Roman Empire. Do you think the use of abortion as the ultimate condom, and the legalizing of sodomy is not going to bring judgment? We are all guilty, because the men that legislate these laws were sent to Washington D.C. by your vote and support. No external force could have ever defeated Rome. She fell apart from within.

“It Is Over!”

“It is over!” declares Ted Kennedy. The opposition is reduced to the Neanderthal man of the Stone Age. We won the ideological war!

I pondered these words, “It is over,” spoken like a captain who has just taken a hill in battle. Pat Buchanan has already spelled doom for America in his book, The Death of the West. Pat says, “Any nation that cannot keep its borders, will cease to be a nation.” Billy Graham says, “If God doesn’t send judgment upon America, He will have to apologize to Sodom and Gomorrah.” Hal Lindsay, a foremost scholar of prophecy, agrees in the demise of America for humanity to embrace the final kingdom of the Gentile Age, the European Community of Nations.

“It is over!” says Ted Kennedy. He is speaking of the Judiciary. You Republicans can pray now, but you’ll never get another Christian to sit on the Supreme Court or a lower court. You folks that believe abortion is murder, and sodomy is sin, are being relegated to the Stone Age, the age of the Neanderthal. According to Ted Kennedy, the humanists have won the war, “It is over!”

It has been said, “The sun never sets on the British Empire.” Her extensive colonization of nations was noticeable throughout the world. Her reign really began in earnest after the defeat of the Spanish Armada in open sea warfare in 1588. From that time, England has ruled the seven seas throughout the world.

America is but a lion's whelp compared to the lion, called England. The monarchy of England, including Prince Charles, claims a blue bloodline extending back to the house of King David of Israel. It is all in the blood, say the royal families of Europe. The United States of America, as it was founded, never bought into that lie of Satan. Here in the land of the free and the home of the brave, a boy born in a log cabin like Abraham Lincoln, can attain to the presidency.

That is all folklore today. One must first be a Freemason and a member of the Council on Foreign Relations to even be considered as a valid candidate to the presidency. Only one man has succeeded in breaking with that code since Calvin Coolidge. His name is Ronald Reagan. Even Ronald Reagan succumbed to the pressure brought to bear on him and joined both of these organizations in his second term in office. However the Trilateralists accomplished the feat, this humbling process is probably what brought on the Alzheimer's disease that he is suffering from today.

Only one other candidate to even become a serious candidate was Barry Goldwater, a Jew from Arizona. To many, this man is the father of our modern day Conservative movement, which nurtured and spoon fed Ronald Reagan. Barry Goldwater's The Conscience of a Conservative should be a textbook in every classroom in America. Because Barry Goldwater was not a member of the elitist CFR of New York City, this was the first election to test their ability to totally annihilate the opposition. The news media itself had questions concerning their own powers until they discovered Goldwater only carried four states. "The New Yorker" magazine portrayed Goldwater on the front cover, having horns stemming from his head. Goldwater was indeed the devil to them. How is the CFR any different from the teaching of the Koran that says all infidels need their throats cut?

The third giant of a man that the CFR-controlled media is presently engaged with and declared the "enemy of society" is George W. Bush. Why is the news media, other CFR loyalists, the Trilateralists, the Skull and Bones out to destroy this man? His father, George H. Bush, is one of them. He did all those things, and joined the necessary "secret societies" necessary to become the President of the United States.

George W. walked in the traditions of the Skull and Bones fraternity of Yale University. In this rare elitist club, the candidate for the order of Skull and Bones is placed in a casket. Rising from the casket is similar to our water baptism where we are raised to "walk in newness of life" (Rom. 6:4). Only, in Skull and Bones, the new initiate rises with a vow to the devil that he will forever serve him. Wow! Our poor initiate was on his way to the already pre-ordained planned life for all Skull and Bones initiates. George W. was on his road to success.

But, young George W. had one flaw in his character; he became addicted to alcohol through partying at Yale. This one flaw would destroy our young George W. He did not go to A.A. for help, but George W. went to Jesus Christ. Jesus forgave him of all of his sins, including making his vow to forever serve Satan. George W. knew Skull and Bones had no secret cure for alcoholism, but Jesus Christ of Nazareth did! Do you think Ted Kennedy, David Rockefeller or Dan Rather will ever forgive George W. for going to Jesus?

George W. Bush may be the last American President that you'll ever witness that has convictions that are Bible-based. One of these convictions is not to turn to the United Nations for help and kiss the feet of the French, Germans and Russians. The One World Globalists will always resent George surrendering to the Queen instead of the Secretary-General of the UN.

Our young President has been caught between a rock and a hard place in seeking help in Iraq. I'm sure the French were waiting impatiently for George to seek them out for help. It is an heroic move on one side of the coin, but in reality he is choosing the lesser of two evils, the head of the Anglican Church, and the head of worldwide Masonry, Queen Elizabeth II.

However, when you look at America from the standpoint of Bible prophecy she ceases to exist on the pages of Holy Writ. How could Daniel and all the prophets never see the greatest nation ever created by God? President Bush, by this move, is unknowingly answering a question that has baffled the theologians. "Now all these things happened unto them for examples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come." (1 Cor. 10:11) Daniel reminds us that everything was to be sealed until "the time of the end." (Dan. 12:9) We are the only people to understand prophecy.

The War Of Gog Of The Land Of Magog (Russia)!

In scripture, when Russia decides to descend upon Israel (Ezk. 38), the only voice in opposition is the voice of the Queen, speaking on behalf of the entire free world, "Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?" (Ezk. 38:13) Please read the entire 38th chapter of Ezekiel. It reads like tomorrows newspaper concerning the next war to transpire between Israel and the king of the north, Gog, who lives in the land of Magog. "Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech (Moscow) and Tubal (Tobolsk)." (Ezk. 38:3)

The Queen is helpless to defend Israel from her enemies as Russia moves upon "them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates" (Ezk. 38:11)

The Queen and her allies, “Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof.” (Ezk. 38:13) The USA in prophecy is listed as only one of the young lions of the British throne: Canada and Australia are other young lions, but the Queen speaks for them all.

“As an eagle (symbol of America prior to Bush’s recent visit to London, thus passing the baton to the Queen and in so doing becoming a young lion of the British Empire) stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings. So the LORD alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him.” (Deu. 32:11-12)

In context, this is a part of the Song of Moses, “Give ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.” (Deu. 32:1) Read the entire chapter of Deuteronomy 32. Moses is referring to Jacob returning to the land of his nativity. This is exactly what young George has done; looking to the land of our predecessors for help—England.

Your Gethsemane as a Christian is upon you. “It is over!” They’ve taken the hill! Of course, the average American has no idea that a war has even been declared.

It was the mystery man of Woodrow Wilson’s Cabinet, Col. E. Mandell House who was first to spot the weak link in our system of checks and balances that protect the government from despotism and dictatorship. Col. House declared this “city on a hill” can be taken without ever firing a shot.

Col. House’s “Philip Dru, Administrator”

In 1913, as a commander-in-chief of darkness, he wrote the entire strategy of how to conquer this “city on a hill” in a novel entitled, Philip Dru, Administrator. This book is on a par with George Orwell’s 1984 and Brave New World. The fictitious character, Philip Dru, eventually rides to power out of a mass news media induced race riot. This book’s predictions are still applicable even as I am writing this letter. A race riot is still eminent to bring about a dictatorship. The entire country thus welcomes dictatorship to end the chaos our own CFR-controlled media induced, so says Col. House in this book.

There is one other character in the book whose name is Rockland. Rockland becomes President of the USA on the heels of a depression. You must remember when this book was written, 1913. Rockland is a perfect portrayal of FDR, from the immediate closing of the banks, the setting up of public work programs like the WPA, the CCC camps, etc. The moment Franklin Delano Roosevelt was elected President, he flew to Col. E. Mandell House’s mansion to receive further instruction on how to further portray this fictitious character, Rockland.

Col. House, like a captain at war, set out to take a hill. That hill is singled out not as a machine gun nest, but as our own Judiciary. Our founding fathers actually created three hills to separate the powers of government between the Executive, the Legislative and the Judiciary branches of government.

But according to the Colonel, only one hill needed to be taken to take the entire “city on a hill.” Mr. House declared, “It is the Judiciary!” Once that is in the hands of the liberals and secured, “the ideological war is over, and we can declare with confidence, It is done!”

But a plan of attack to take the city must be laid out. The President appoints new members to the Judiciary. The objective never changes. It is the Judiciary that must be ours! But, seeing as how the President makes the appointments to that particular branch, the Executive must be controlled in order to pack the bench. The news media comes in as members of the CFR to portray all liberals in a good light, while downplaying Conservatives as ignorant.

How was Col. House to accomplish this feat? Col. E. Mandell House founded the Council on Foreign Relations with the objective clearly in mind to control the office of the presidency. Dan Smoot, a former FBI agent, wrote a textbook on this subject entitled, The Invisible Government.

Herbert Hoover was the first CFR agent to sit in the White House. To be a voting member of CFR, one must reside within a 50-mile radius of New York City. Both Republicans and Democrats are members of Col. House’s elite club, the CFR.

If you thoroughly understand the ideological warfare that has been going on ever since Col. House discovered this weak link in 1913, you will understand that this taking of “the city on a hill” has taken some doing over a long period of time. Ted Kennedy spelled the victory to you after the Republican’s failure to stop the Democrat’s filibuster to prevent the nomination of Bush’s judges to the Supreme Court and the district courts. Unless Bush appoints liberals who believe in sodomy and abortion, they’ll not sit on any bench in America.

You can sleep on, America. Your Gethsemane is coming. “It is over,” and the liberals have won! We conservatives have been reduced to the Stone Age by Ted Kennedy and according to him, our heritage is the Neanderthal man.
