MESSAGE 4 - 2007

THE FIRST MAN ADAM, AND A LAST ADAM (1 COR. 15:45)
IS THERE A FIRST WOMAN EVE, AND A LAST EVE
TO DRIVE US OUT OF OUR GARDEN IN AMERICA THAT WE LOVE?
By Cpt. Gordon Nelson

"And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit...The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven." (1 Cor. 15:45,47)

My question to you as you join me in this study is, "What about a last woman, Eve? The first woman Eve is of the earth, earthy: the second woman Eve is a lesbian butch (a quickening devil) who deceives America."

I am deeply in debt to Rosie O'Donnell's exhibition at the Waldorf-Astoria over ABC before a packed audience of New York's most accomplished women in media, which included Barbara Walters sitting by her side for this particular message. All the women present on "The View," seemed strangely congealed to the viewpoint of Rosie O'Donnell. I never heard a dissenting view from any of them.

I haven't seen anything comparable to this since Elvis (the Pelvis) Presley's gyrations, with teenage girls screaming as though Elvis was having spiritual sex with every one of them. Elvis single-handedly opened the door to the "love generation" and the rebellious 1960's. Elvis' initial singing career began in an Assemblies of God church, singing, "Amazing Grace." I married into a pocket of Assemblies of Godites who were taught to depend on their feelings. "If it feels good, do it!" Even Saul called on David to sing. It made him feel good, without being good. (1 Sam. 16:23)

Paul admonished Timothy, "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables." (2 Tim. 4:2-4) We now see Isaiah's prophesy has come to pass, "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!" (Isa. 5:20-21)

Rosie O'Donnell did not open the door, but was the instrument used so I could look more clearly through a door already opened up by Hillary Clinton. When Hillary left Arkansas to move to Washington D.C., she brought her lesbian friends, Janet Reno, Donna Shalala, Joycelyn Elders, to fill all the vacancies left by the Republicans. Hillary Clinton is the second Eve. We'll be driven from this Republic into a Socialist Dictatorship. No Republic has ever lasted over 200 years.

When men succumbed to the women marching in the streets crying for the equal right to vote, they never dreamed of a Queen Lesbian Bee organizing another kingdom led by these lesbian butches who would in time spell our own demise.

In my last newsletter called, "He that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved," we examined Matthew 24 after the disciples asked the question of the Master, "Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?" (Matt. 24:3) Jesus answered this question in four parts. Strangely, in answering this question it gives us a further enlightenment relative to the four horsemen of the Apocalypse.

Four horsemen of the Apocalypse

Jesus warns, as we study Matthew 24 in the light of the four horsemen, or the opening of the first four seals, "Take heed that no man deceive you." (Matt. 24:4)

First seal – The White Horse Rider – "For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many." (Matt. 24:5) Chief among them, and always attired in white, is the Pope of Rome, the Vicar of Christ on earth. Every preacher who owns his own "diocese" is counted among this sudden rise in false prophets. Freemason, Billy Graham, the pied piper who led many churches into the World Council of Churches, laid the foundation for a One World Church.

Second seal – The Red Horse Rider – "And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars...but the end is not yet." (Matt. 24:6) Islam takes peace from the earth. (Rev. 6:3-4)

Third seal – The Black Horse Rider, or famine, which invariably follows war. "For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places." (Matt. 24:7) (Rev. 6:5-6)

Fourth seal – The Pale Horse Rider, who is Antichrist (Rev. 6:7-8)

America as we have known it is gradually disappearing before our eyes. The destruction of America via the Presidency really began with the Bible-toting Jimmy Carter. It suffered a temporary setback during the Ronald Reagan years, but with the election of Bill Clinton and his wife, Hillary, they soon regained any losses suffered during the Reagan presidency.

Georgie Boy has a legacy problem!

I believe Michael Reagan on his own Saturday afternoon radio talk show said it best. "George Bush is now suffering from a 'legacy problem.' What will he be remembered by in his eight years in Washington D.C.?" He was hoping it would be a win in the war in Iraq, but can see that will not happen. So, Georgie Boy has turned to Ted Kennedy and his gang for aid in quest of his legacy. Ted Kennedy is unconcerned about Georgie Boy's legacy, but rather in the destruction of the Republican Party for the next 75 years! This amnesty bill has that potential by adopting illegal aliens who are dependent upon the Democratic dole system to take from the rich to give to the poor. This immigration bill will guarantee the Democrat Party's "spend, spend, tax, tax" policy will continue unabated for years to come.

Women's Suffrage Act

(Judge Magazine, 19th October, 1912)

America is following in the footsteps of the Roman Empire and its eventual fall. If you read the book titled, The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire, by Edward Gibbon, you would think Mr. Gibbon was writing about America in the hour in which we live. "The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun." (Ecc. 1:9)

1,500 guests, including Barbara Walters

As you watched all the women who came together at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City, with Rosie O'Donnell acting as emcee of the New York Women in Communications Matrix Awards luncheon ceremony, you suddenly are awakened out of a deep slumber. As emcee, Rosie O'Donnell put on an exhibition for the ladies as, "She dropped F-bombs, grabbed her crotch, and shouted for Donald Trump to 'Eat me!'" (News-Max, June 2007, p. 48) Women simply enjoy being led by these half-male, half-females we call lesbian butches. The 21st Century woman has come a long way baby, since her initiation into the halls of Congress with the passage of the Women's Suffrage Act. Truly a "Kingdom of Women" has been birthed, and they are like sheep following their shepherd, a lesbian butch, as their captain.

Lucifer and the woman possess the same testimony, "I will be like the most High"

Women have the same desire implanted into their hearts that caused Satan to be cast out of heaven. "For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High." (Isa. 14:13-14)

This is what the Women's Lib Movement and the passage by our Congress of the Women's Suffrage Act (right to vote) has attempted to do with women. God created them equal "in the beginning." "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let THEM (plural) have dominion (reign, rule)." (Gen. 1:26) Please don't blame God, because He created them as co-rulers of this universe. God fired Eve as co-ruler because she hearkened unto the serpent. When God expelled Adam and Eve from the Garden of Eden, Eve lost her dominion rights. "And thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee." (Gen. 3:16) Women of today are in rebellion against God, and don't understand why. They are at war with God over their rights.

The false prophets of Christian television lift this curse placed on Eve. They use the fact that Jesus showed compassion upon a harlot caught in the very act of adultery. (Jn. 8:4) It takes two to tango! If caught in the act of adultery, why didn't those hypocrites accusing her bring the man to be stoned, as well? Moses' Law required the death of both the man and the woman caught in this sin. I believe what Christ wrote on the ground was this, "Anyone of you with stones in your hand that has not had sex with this woman, you cast the first stone!"

Actually, this woman is a type of every sinner coming to Christ. "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." (Rom. 3:23) Like every one of us coming to Christ, He erases our past by the blood of the Lamb. We have a clean slate, but we must remember Christ's final warning to this woman. He forgave her of all her past. "Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more." (Jn. 8:11) This woman was now born again. She has "passed from death unto life" (1 Jn. 3:14), just like us, but she was told implicitly to knock it off and "sin no more."

"My little children, these things write I unto you, THAT YE SIN NOT. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: and he is the propitiation for our sins." (1 Jn. 2:1-2) But we must "confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse (continue to cleanse) us from all unrighteousness." (1 Jn. 1:9) As we confess our sins as a Christian, the blood of Christ continues to cleanse us from our sins.

Apostle Paul on "chain of command"

We see from our study that the story of the woman caught in adultery has absolutely nothing to do with the curse placed upon a woman by Eve's expulsion from Eden. Apostle Paul, who was sent to the Gentiles, explains God's governmental "chain of command." "But I would have you know, that the head of every (Christian) man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God." (1 Cor. 11:3) Paul is describing the government, or chain of command, that is aboard a ship. Jesus chose twelve and not one of them a woman. There is no scripture that implies that a woman ever held the office of apostle or elder in the church. The office of elder, apostle and prophet are a type of the Levitical priesthood. The tribe of Levi was barred from owning real estate. They lived by the tithes to the temple. Today's apostles are all multi-millionaires, but they claim to be just like the early church. Jesse Duplantis, a TBN apostle, openly tells us that his aspiration is to become a billionaire.

Catholic women wore head coverings. Why?

Catholic women used to wear a head covering as they went into the church. I'm quite sure they didn't know why they were to wear the head covering. As I understand Paul's writings, the Catholic women did this "because of the angels." "But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head (her husband)...For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels." (1 Cor. 11:5,10) The angels know God is a God of order. They also know what happened to one of their own, Lucifer, the son of the morning, when he desired to be equal with God. These Catholic women wore those head coverings to keep the angels from backsliding. The woman unconsciously is sending a message to the angels telling them, “I am under the authority of my husband.”

A woman is to be under a covering all the days of her life. A woman’s first covering is her father. He remains so until he walks her down the aisle of a church to transfer this power over to her husband. During the ceremony the preacher asks, “Who gives this woman away?” It is then her father says, “I do.” That covering is then transferred to another male head, her husband.

I met a woman in Medford, OR who was an ex-prostitute, who had accepted Christ as her Saviour, was baptized in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, and filled with the Holy Ghost. However, she was fortunate to have a pastor who understood the power of fallen angels who wish to return to their old home that is now “swept and garnished.” (Matt. 12:43-45) This ex-prostitute explained to me just how those demons were kept at bay. She had a covering, her own pastor, who was a happily married Assemblies of God preacher. Her testimony was quite startling to me. It only worked because the preacher understood how necessary it was for her to have a male covering. Without this covering, the demon is free to return and “the last state of that man (or woman) is worse than the first.” (Matt. 12:45)

Hollywood and the sex education classes held in our public schools, teach our youth all about “love.” Just as the serpent beguiled Eve in the Garden, so the “uncovered” female becomes prey to the wiles of the serpent. The late Walter Martin, the famed “Bible Answer Man,” commenting on 1 Corinthians 11:10, said, “For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels,” is referring to fallen angels.”

In order for marriage to achieve the status of a covenant, fathers must become involved with the restoration of the dowry, and the blood on the sheets. A covenant always requires blood to be binding in the eyes of God or man.

100% of all divorce in Jesus’ day was initiated by the husband

In the days of Jesus of Nazareth, 100% of all divorce was initiated by a man. Under the law of Moses, a man could divorce his wife “for every cause.” (Matt. 19:3) If his wife failed to cook his eggs to his liking, he could simply give her a bill of divorcement and send her out of his house. This is what Jesus came to rectify. You men of Israel can no longer divorce “for every cause.” Jesus’ own disciples answered him, “If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.” (Matt. 19:10) One wife was literally an impossibility!

Apostle Barnabas, Apostle Paul and the preachers that followed them like Timothy, Titus, John Mark, etc., did not marry. However, Jesus said, “All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.” (Matt. 19:11) Apostle Paul declares, “Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.” (1 Cor. 11:1) Did that include his celibacy? The followers of James the Less, the half-brother of Jesus in Jerusalem, all had wives. Paul was referring to the Jerusalem apostles when he said, “Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas (Apostle Peter)?” (1 Cor. 9:5)

Lesbian butches feel intimidated by the power God gave men

The lesbian butch, Rosie O'Donnell, is married to a sweet, docile lady. The lesbian butch seeks the same type of woman her male counterpart is looking for and accounts for Rosie's explosion on Donald Trump because he showed mercy on a young woman. Can you imagine yourself as a young lady being Rosie's wife for the sake of materialism? Do you really believe that these lesbians haven't opened themselves up to fallen angels? Is it just Rosie speaking when she openly attacks the male that is made in God's image?

The hunter: Over age 35, financially successful, in every bar and mega-church in America.

The hunted: “And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding.” (Prov. 7:7)

AZ Tribune, 5/10/07, “Get Out”

Unfortunately, to protect women's rights in labor unions the shop steward chosen is often a lesbian butch. She has a beard and speaks like a male in a low gruff voice. The sweet little things swarm around their shop steward like bees over their queen. They go absolutely gaga. It is a sight to behold! You must never erase that scene of Donald Trump standing up to Rosie O'Donnell. It tells you the times we're living in! We are pulling the train into Sodom. Could it be that Rosie is simply announcing to the world coming future events? “The lesbian butches are here! What are you going to do about it?” Now Rosie wants Bob Barker's job on “The Price is Right” when he retires. What next?

Marriage is called, “The law of her husband”

Every marriage in America today has the sword of Damocles hanging over it. Divorce is only a phone call away! The woman is the captain of the ship of marriage by the government's intrusion into marriage with their community property laws. I knew men who desired to divorce their wives. After discussing the cost with their attorneys, they quickly concluded it would be far cheaper to live with the woman.

The divorce ratio in the church is the same as those down at the bars. Divorce was a man's thing in Jesus' day, but today 98½ % of all divorce is initiated by a woman. Scripturally, another name for marriage is, “law of her husband.” “For the woman which hath an husband is BOUND BY THE LAW to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the LAW OF HER HUSBAND. So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from THAT LAW; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.” (Rom. 7:2-3)

Marriage is called the “law of her husband” because he is the only one who can break the contract. Scripturally, even he is limited to only one reason for a divorce, and that is fornication. I know the word stems from the Greek word, “porneia,” which includes harlotry, adultery, incest and idolatry. In making a public vow before God and man, it becomes sacred. If you were completely deceived at the altar in taking a woman as your wife for better or for worse, and discovered the “worst” after marriage, under such circumstances only did Jesus permit the husband to divorce. She was already a fornicator. Marriage is not some kind of reform school for active fornicators. When a woman has sex with every male in her graduating class after she has been Spirit-filled, “they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh.” (Heb. 6:6)

“Marriage is honourable”

“Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled.” (Heb. 13:4) The question never asked is, “Who owns the bed?” By his proposal on bended knee, your husband invited you into his marriage bed that was undefiled. This is why marriage is called, “The law of her husband.” It is called that because he is the only one that can break the contract. He owns the bed. He invited you into his bed. He is the only one who can kick you out and that “only for fornication.” (Matt. 19:9) If a dog invites you into his bed, don’t you think it is right to call in your father to check for fleas?

Society, under the guise of religion, has reversed the curse. The Bible says, “be not weary in well doing.” (2 Thes. 3:13) A woman tires of trying to please a man, especially if she is endowed with a beautiful body. Using her body as a weapon, she reverses the curse of Genesis 3:16, and finds a man who will please her. “And my people love to have it so.” (Jer. 5:31)

The only scriptural marriage being performed today is when a Catholic priest marries an Italian woman to a man in the Mafia. This marriage is “until death do us part.” All other marriages are simply on hold, held by “the law of his wife.” In today’s society, a man’s wife often becomes the prodigal, making the same request of her husband in a divorce court. “Father (or husband), give me the portion of goods that falleth to me.” (Lk. 15:12) A woman cares not how macho you are. She’ll give you exactly one child and three years to have you dangling from her pinky finger or else! However, she may hold off and choose the day after the final child is married. She sets the time. It is her decision. This happened to my pastor the day after his daughter was married. His wife filed for divorce the next day. It is tough on a red-blooded man to live under “the law of his wife.” His refusal is what has caused the homosexual explosion.

“The letter killeth”

It is easy for any of us to concoct something in our brain and decide, “I will do thus and so.” How is that any different from Lucifer who became the universe’s first sinner by employing the words, “I will,” into his vocabulary. This generation of people are cool cats, and rely totally upon their brain for direction. They believe that their rationale is synonymous with God’s ways.

This holds true in practice, whether they use the words, “I will,” or not. Do you know Satan knows the Bible better than you and I? In the wilderness temptation of Christ, Lucifer only quoted the scriptures to Jesus. Just because someone is quoting scripture to affirm the fact that they are a god, doesn’t make it so. The Bible plainly teaches us, “Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for THE LETTER KILLETH, but the spirit giveth life.” (2 Cor. 3:6) It takes the Spirit to germinate the seed to create life.

One must learn to read the Bible on his own, and not hearken to pulpitering that is designed for “itching ears.” (2 Tim. 4:3)

Hebrews gives us two solemn warnings that are directed solely to Pentecostal believers which is ignored by the “tongue talkers” who “say they are Jews (spiritual Israel), and are not, but do lie.” (Rev. 3:9) What circumcision is to a Jew, the Baptism of the Holy Ghost is to a believer. By this sign in our flesh, we’ve been “enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift.” (Heb. 6:4) Hebrews continues, “If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.” (Heb. 6:6)

“For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.”

“He that despised Moses’ law died without mercy under two or three witnesses: of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace”

“For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.” (Heb. 10:26-31)

It ends with, “The Lord shall judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.” I stumbled upon a Pentecostal woman who only prays in tongues, yet demons have moved in to possess her body. This particular woman believes the demons came in because she was listening to Harold Camping of Family Radio out of Oakland, CA. She doesn’t have a clue as to how or why God permitted the demons to go in and possess her. She is born again, baptized in water, and has received the baptism of the Holy Ghost and fire. (Matt. 3:11) Devils even cause her to roll on the floor and torment her mind all night long. She sought out the Captain to help her. Women today are unconscious of the sin they are committing. Today it is the norm!

First of all, let me say this for the record. This is not a Baptist, Presbyterian, Catholic, Methodist problem. Why? It is because these have not been “enlightened, and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost.” (Heb. 6:4) “For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required.” (Lk. 12:48)

“For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.” (2 Pet. 2:20-21)

My friend Randy’s mother-in-law became a Christian. She had no problem living with her husband, a doctor in the Carmel, CA area, until she accepted Christ as her personal Savior. Jesus had washed all her sins away in the blood of Christ. Now that she became a Christian, she no longer had much in common with her husband, who was a sinner. She was but a baby in the Lord, and came to understand how much God hates sin. What a way to start your Christian walk by divorcing your mate? Preachers seem to preach sermons that completely bypass where folks are living. She did not get any devils, but had she been “enlightened, and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,” as a mature believer, I believe God would have lifted the hedge and permitted the demons to return. “When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.” (Matt. 12:43) You’re familiar with the story. The unclean spirit returns with “seven other spirits more wicked than himself...and the last state of that man is worse than the first.” (Matt. 12:45)

The dragon cast down to earth

The dragon, or serpent, was cast down to earth by Michael and his angels. (Rev. 12:7-10) The serpent of old (who the Mormons claim is simply a brother of Jesus) is fighting the identical way he fought in heaven. We cannot defeat the dragon by our strength, our cunning, our mental genius. The Bible is very clear on this subject, “And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, and prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.” (Rev. 12:7-8)

There was a war in heaven! Do you know why there was a war? Ever since I heard the audible voice of God screaming, “From henceforth know we no man after the flesh!” peculiar things transpire in my spirit. At the time, I did not know the message was in the Bible (2 Cor. 5:16).

I visited a family who lived in Minnesota in an old-fashioned farm house that had a huge kitchen. All the meals were served on a large round kitchen table. Breakfast around this table was served by Meta Mapson, my future mother-in-law. Meta had five children. Yvonne, the eldest, was to become my wife. The only one missing from this round table was the father, Harold Mapson. He had left home at the crack of dawn to deliver a bull to Fairmont for some farmer.

The only reason I paint this picture is because of that round table. The Holy Ghost would burn that round table into my heart. I didn’t know why. “It’s just an old farmhouse table, Holy Ghost!” But, I pondered that huge table in my heart nonetheless.

This particular table became Meta Mapson's pulpit as she began to entertain and brainwash her children by getting her congregation to laugh. She related all the mistakes their father had made the day before. The subject material was always the father, exactly as portrayed on the TV show, "All in the Family." The woman who became my wife, became much like a surrogate mother to help raise the younger children.

The reason the Holy Ghost burned that table into my heart was because of a similar table that existed in heaven. It was around this table where 1/3 of the heavenly host gathered, mesmerized by Lucifer's beauty. The war that broke out in heaven was over the angels. "Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven." (Matt. 18:10) Satan was thrown out of heaven because he stole the hearts of the angels, who always behold the face of the Father.

That same war continues on earth, and is the chief reason for divorce. A woman thus sets out to steal the hearts of the angels (the children). To prevent such a war is the reason she must come under "the law of her husband." She must have a male covering all the days of her life, "because of the (fallen) angels." The demons enter and the wife cannot stand the angels looking to father.

The Bible says, "greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world." (1 Jn. 4:4) Devils cannot move in unless "God gave them up" unto the devil. (Rom. 1:26) Both my wife and her mother were successful in winning the hearts of the angels, but both met an early demise. On the other hand, my father-in-law and I both enjoyed the blessing of a long life as a blessing from God

All marriage is NOT a covenant

Do you think all marriage is a covenant? What if there is no blood on the sheets? One can't have a covenant without blood. After my wedding night, I asked this Assemblies of Godite why there was no blood. It was evident in my dream that this marriage was to be before a Justice of the Peace, and not before a preacher. There was no blood!

This calling all marriage a covenant by the preachers is outright lying to the people. One of the very worst along these lines is Harold Camping of Family Radio out of Oakland, CA. Under the Law of Moses, "the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured...shall take a wife in her virginity." (Lev. 21:10,13)

Isaiah 28 speaks of these drunkards of Ephraim, a type of emotional Pentecostalism in our day. "But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink...For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that THERE IS NO PLACE CLEAN." (Isa. 28:7-8)
