MESSAGE 7 - 2007

CLIMB THAT MOUNTAIN!
ELSE DIE IN THE WATER OF RELIGION!
By Cpt. Gordon Nelson

Dear Caryl,

Greetings from the Captain!

The book of Hebrews informs us that Jesus is the captain of our salvation. (Heb. 2:10) I am a captain over spirits. "Who are you? What is your name?" These are not limited to evil spirits, but the human spirit, as well. The spirit never dies. "Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it." (Ecc. 12:7) God then sends the spirit back to earth and it reappears clothed in a different garment. It is still the same spirit.

If you compare the Jehovah's Witnesses doctrines with that of the Sadducees, you will be looking at the same spirit. This is the reason the Sadducee's are so "sad-u-see." Neither group believes in the supernatural, angels or judgment to come.

I've only met one other person who literally caused the scriptures to leap out at me like they have since meeting you. I married that woman on a dream. The Holy Spirit is the author of the book. "For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man (man did not write the Bible): but holy men of God spake AS THEY WERE MOVED by the Holy Ghost." (2 Pet. 1:21)

Paul's gospel to the Gentiles

Paul had the audacity to tell those Jerusalem apostles who were under the authority of James, the half-brother of Jesus, "But I certify you, brethren (at Jerusalem), that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. (Paul spent three years in the Arabian Desert and the only Christ he ever knew was the Christ after the Spirit.) For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it (by man), but by the revelation of Jesus Christ (after the Spirit)." (Gal. 1:11-12)

The Apostle Paul was skeptical of even the apostles at Jerusalem, who had given three and one-half years following a Christ after the flesh (a Rabbi) who Paul declares "know we him no more." (2 Cor. 5:16)

Paul boasts of the fact that he never went to Bible school or a theological seminary. "Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia." (Gal. 1:17) Paul went on raving about his ministry being different from theirs. "Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not." (Gal. 1:20)

Who is Paul addressing when he is talking like this? Peter, James and John. “But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they [Peter, James and John] were, it maketh no matter to me)...for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference (to confer individually) added nothing to me.” (Gal. 2:6)

Paul already knew the Jerusalem apostles were still bound by the law. How did he know? Because their teacher was Rabbi Jesus, a minister of the circumcision. “Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision (or flesh) for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers (Abraham, Isaac and Jacob).” (Rom. 15:8)

The Assemblies of God

The Assemblies of God and most all Holy Roller preachers are “ministers of the circumcision for the truth of God.” (Rom. 15:8) To a Jew, circumcision was the first step toward establishing that he is righteous. In your own repertoire of doctrinal belief, Caryl, you are a disciple of this theology. “For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor TO DO THE WHOLE LAW.” (Gal. 5:3) Do you know what the whole law is? The entire books of Leviticus and Deuteronomy, with over 500 laws. “For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that CONTINUETH not in ALL THINGS which are written in the book of the law TO DO THEM.” (Gal. 3:10)

A dream from Satan

Following your dream that you were going to hell is when all these attacks began. Caryl, you did not know where to run, but into the arms of the law. “And the law is not of faith: but, The man that DOETH THEM (laws for justification) shall live in them.” (Gal. 3:12) “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law.” (Rom. 3:19) Religion will invariably put you under the law, or as a Baptist to “lasciviousness of grace.” You’ll only find the King’s Highway by personally reading your Bible. No one helped me to find the strait gate or the highway!

Caryl, you cannot be perfect as God is perfect. God never sinned, but you were born in sin. “Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and IN SIN did my mother conceive me.” (Ps. 51:5) How could you be perfect as God is perfect? Jesus was speaking to the Jews, who sought justification by the law. This “minister of the circumcision,” Jesus, came unto His own who were all circumcised. Jesus was throwing a curve ball at those Jews who sought justification by the law. Rabbi Jesus was not teaching doctrine to Gentiles; Paul does that!

Apostle Paul is the minister to the Gentiles, but is totally rejected by them. “Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ.” (Gal. 2:16) What a Christian world we have created by our theological seminaries! Christ is rejected of the Jews, while Paul is rejected of the Gentiles.

“My gospel”

Did you know the Apostle Paul terms the Good News as “my gospel”? (Rom. 2:16, Rom. 16:25, 2 Tim. 2:8) “For I (Paul) am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused (to betroth) you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.” (2 Cor. 11:2) “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God.” (Eph. 2:8) That, my friend, is the gospel!

In Galatians 5:4, the Apostle cannot get any stronger than this. “Christ (the Christ after the Spirit) is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.” The devil was trying to send you to hell through that dream, already knowing you would flee to the law to save yourself.

It is not easy to get free from the law. Those tentacles reach out like those of an octopus. You can have a mind understanding, but the knowledge must go down into the recesses of the heart and spirit to experience the liberty. “Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled AGAIN with the yoke of bondage (the law).” (Gal. 5:1)

How the Captain was delivered from Pentecostals who “say they are Jews (spiritual Israel), and are not, but do lie.” (Rev. 3:9)

First step in full deliverance:

Read the book of Galatians until you have it almost memorized. Meditate upon this book. A lot of books that Apostle Paul wrote to the various churches were corrective letters. If Paul were to send a message to correct the Pentecostal church of today, this is the book he would send to Springfield, MO and the Assemblies of God.

“O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth...Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?” (Gal. 3:1,3)

Second step in Captain’s deliverance:

Romans 4. Commit the entire chapter to memory. “Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.” (Rom. 4:8)

Third step:

Abraham, the father of the faithful. Apostle Paul is unlike Jesus who uses various characters from the Old Testament, i.e., Jonah, Elijah, Noah, Lot, Lot’s wife, Daniel, to make his point. Paul only uses one. To get absolutely free from the law, you need to visualize this man Abraham until you literally bring him forth from the dead, like the witch of Endor brought Samuel up from his grave.

Instead of some pity party, think Abrahamic. “And if ye be Christ’s, then are ye Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise” (Gal. 3:29), given to Abraham.

Meeting Caryl, combined with her dream of climbing the mountain, I remember the struggle I had to be delivered from the Wilderness of Sin and Mt. Sinai. Honey, you’ve got to go beyond Calvary to be set free of the claims of the law. Your salvation is based on a covenant that God gave to Abraham. Do you think God and Abraham can make a covenant and it be legitimate? “And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly.” (Gen. 17:2) Calvary was necessary to confirm the covenant by blood.

“And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise (given to Abraham) of none effect.” (Gal. 3:17) Without blood, there is no covenant.

We are saved by a promise God gave to Abraham, but this message fails to come across in our Pentecostal pulpits. The law came on the scene 430 years after the promise, making its claim to authenticity. It is akin to a new woman on the block attempting to be accepted into your house. If you are foolish enough to listen to her, you’ll be declared a bigamist.

IF—there’s that word again. The Bible is loaded with them! God never destroyed the free moral agency of angels: why would He intrude on yours. Read Jude 6. “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are (or came) UNDER THE LAW.” (Rom. 3:19) If all you listen to is pulpit preaching, you’ll come under the law. Every time a pulpiteer preaches, you should be as the Bereans, who checked upon Paul’s teachings and “searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.” (Acts 17:11)

Caryl’s remarkable dream from God

In your dream you were struggling as you climbed this mountain. The reason that you are climbing for higher ground is because you realize a flood is coming. You became suddenly aware that neither the natural family nor religion based on “the Door,” was sufficient to save you. Only the God of the mountain has this power to deliver you from the New Age flood of religion. Moses was on top of Mt. Sinai, a type of the Ten Commandments. He climbed up from the wilderness of Sin where the church is living today. Climb that mountain! You must put the law under your feet.

You must have the desire implanted by the Holy Ghost to climb that mountain alone. No one helps a person to get out of the wilderness of Sin. It only comes by you personally studying the Word of God. “You” is implied in “Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.” (2 Tim. 2:15)

By the time you reach the top of the mountain, you’ll then be able to go and tell other men, just like the woman of Samaria. “The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?” (Jn. 4:28-29)

She was very beautiful, so had no trouble gathering an all-male audience to listen to her testimony. After hearing, all those men said within themselves, “We wish to hear this man ourselves!” They left the city to go hear Jesus for themselves expound on the scriptures. A great revival came to this Samaritan city as a result of this woman who came to Jacob’s well for water.

Caryl, my daughter in the Lord! This is not going to be easy on either one of us. If it were not for your dream, I’d probably have thrown in the towel already. This is a terminology from ring side, watching two boxers go at it. When one of the boxers is beaten up too badly, his manager will have him throw in the towel. The referee sees that action and stops the fight. The opponent is then declared the winner.

“If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God...But let him ask in faith...For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.” (Jas. 1:5-7) “But without faith it is impossible to please him (God).” (Heb. 11:6)

Rahab the harlot

Only two women are listed in the genealogy of Jesus Christ. One is Ruth, and the other is Rahab the harlot. “And Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, even Jericho. And they went, and came into an harlot's house, named Rahab, and lodged there.” (Jos. 2:1) In today's vernacular, the spies came into a whorehouse. Not only was Rahab a Gentile, but a whore and a liar, as well. She lied to the men sent out by the king of Jericho to capture the two spies. “And the woman took the two men, and hid them, and said thus, There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they were.” (Jos. 2:4) She trusted solely in a scarlet thread she hung in her window. (Jos. 2:18) The scarlet thread is a type of the blood.

“All our righteousnesses are as filthy rags.” (Isa. 64:6) This whore of Jericho had no righteousness of her own, but she is listed in God's Hall of Fame in Hebrews 11:4-40. “By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.” (Heb. 11:31) There is no record that Rahab even prayed the “sinner's prayer.” What she did right, however, was to put herself out for someone else. She was concerned about the safety of these two men. Up until this hour, Rahab took care of Rahab. This is the syndrome of our American culture. “It's all about me!”

In my concern over you, the scriptures seem to leap out at me. To get out of where you are to where you want to get, sooner or later, you'll have to be concerned about someone else. We can all sit around at pity parties, screaming, “What about me? What about me?”

Paul vindicates (1 Cor. 7) that the curse on Eve is still applicable

This brings me to my final analysis of your spiritual situation. In today's culture, women have managed, with the aid of government, to reverse the curse and make the man guilty. In reversing the curse God placed on Eve, we have upset the balance of what is normal. Even the angels can't understand the American woman. This is one reason a woman is to have a male covering all the days of her life. “For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.” (1 Cor. 11:8) Man was created in the image of God, woman from a rib covering Adam's heart. She is protection for his heart against temptations that might tempt a man. “Neither was the man created for the woman.” (1 Cor. 11:9) God saw that in his original creation of Adam, “It is not good that the man should be alone.” (Gen. 2:18) Women can survive much better alone than a man. Left alone, he tends to become goofy, or abnormal. “But the woman (was created) for the man.”

The Captain is reiterating the book of Genesis' creation story which Paul vindicates in 1 Corinthians 7 by declaring to you biblical scholars, Genesis is not archaic! The Genesis curse is still in effect today, but is like the law passed in Congress to build a border fence. Where is the fence? Politicians refuse to enforce the laws that already exist on the books.

Satanic triune founders of Laodicea

It's not what Women's Lib believes, but what Paul declares. In 1909, the First Scofield Study Bible was printed, which embodied all of John Darby's teachings. In this same timeframe came Charles Larkin and his dispensational charts. Strange how everything works in triplicate. The founder of the Laodicean church is John Darby, a type of the father; C.I. Scofield is the founder of Dallas Theological Seminary, a type of the son; and Charles Larkin with his dispensational charts is a type of the Holy Ghost. A woman is a type of the church. "The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal (the Word), till the whole was leavened." (Matt. 13:33) Darby-Scofield and Larkin leavened the church. Of course, the Assemblies of God bought into the whole nine yards having as its founder Eudorus N. Bell, an ordained Southern Baptist pastor who managed to speak in tongues.

Dispensation of Grace – only one sin

Charles Larkin named the first dispensation the "Dispensation of Innocence." You'd think Larkin had the power of Adam in naming the animals. A more correct name would be the "Dispensation of Grace." If it were named correctly, folks would more readily understand the Word of God. The whole idea of these Laodicean founders is to confuse the believer.

"And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die." (Gen. 2:16-17) That is describing grace. You can enjoy all the trees, but one.

Joyce Meyer's ministries attraction is her attempt to get Christian women to enjoy their salvation. "Loosen up!" she screams. "It is not all rules and regulations laid down by the church!" I'm trying to say the same thing. One can enjoy all the fruit from all the trees, except one. We have that one described to us in Acts 15:1-35. I wish you would read this portion of scripture. If you understand it, your life could be instantly changed. The entire church gathered in Jerusalem to consider this question. Can one add another law to grace and it still be grace? "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." (Rom. 11:6) This council was called simply because of some brethren from Judea who came and taught, "Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved." (Acts 15:1) Can we add one law to grace?

The conclusion they came to, recorded in Acts 15:28-29, describes the forbidden tree in our generation. "That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye (as Gentiles) keep yourselves, ye shall do well." (Acts 15:29) This all-Jewish council laid on Gentiles only the "necessary things." (Acts 15:28)

Captain marries on a dream from God

I found through a dream from God to marry a certain woman whom I had never dated, that there are two kinds of marriages. The idea is to avoid fornication. One type of marriage is to a virgin, or a blood covenant. This type is particularly recommended for the priests and ministers of the Gospel. The others are by contract. It is the church rules laid down by man that causes man to feel guilt over divorce. God hates divorce, but He also hates lying! Jesus never condemned any man for putting away his wife, but limited the reason to fornication.

Apostle Paul and Apostle Barnabas never married, in spite of the Assemblies of God attempting to bring these apostles down to their own level. "But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment. For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that." (1 Cor. 7:6-7) IF you have no need of a woman, it is a gift from God, and should be accepted as such.

As a young man growing up, I considered celibacy as my very first priority. Once convinced I did not have the gift, but of necessity needed a woman, then did I consider marriage. Marriage is not the number one priority as is described in Hollywood, and confirmed in the church. Marriage today is not to repopulate the world, but to "avoid fornication."

Apparently, all the apostles at Jerusalem "lead about a wife," as did Peter. You should read 1 Corinthians 9:1-6 where Paul is bragging, vindicating his own apostleship. "Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas (Peter)?" (1 Cor. 9:5) Paul wrote that it was a good thing if a man never touch a woman, "Nevertheless, to avoid fornication." (1 Cor. 7:2) Paul puts it even more bluntly, "But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn (in the flesh)." (1 Cor. 7:9) Then Paul adds, "It is good for them if they abide even as I." (1 Cor. 7:8) "Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh." (1 Cor. 7:28)

The Catholic Church

We can readily see the Catholic Church's failure to be celibate. Their priests are simply gay, and for some it is the principal reason they become a priest. These are men who do not desire a woman, but men. Then they have it all; homosexuality clothed in religion and endorsed by the blessing of the mother of God.

Mary and I are both ex-Catholics. There is only one church that we are warned by the Bible to stay out of. It is called "the great whore that sitteth upon many waters." (Rev. 17:1) "Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." (Rev. 18:4) Our Pentecostal churches are building their own diocese with, say, a Kenneth Copeland as the archbishop. The very next Pope could be the False Prophet of scripture. He will be an anti-type of John the Baptist heralding the False Messiah.

This generation shall not pass until all is fulfilled

"So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled." (Matt. 24:33-34) What is a generation of time? 40 years? 70 years?

“But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none.” (1 Cor. 7:29) “Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.” (1 Cor. 7:27) “For the fashion of this world passeth away. But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord: but he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.” (1 Cor. 7:31-33)

As it was in the days of Noah

This dream of Caryl’s has really opened up a lot of scriptures that were previously closed to my comprehension. In this dream there was a tall mountain. There were a lot of people at its base going about their business, but others trying to climb this mountain. It took all her strength and energy to climb to the top. She even hit snow and slipped and slides, but she kept on climbing.

Noah built his ark on top of a mountain. After the flood, it rested on top of Mt. Ararat. Many believe they’ve seen that ark made of gopher wood (Gen. 6:14) resting in the mountains of Turkey. Until Caryl had her dream, I never knew what the water was that the Old Ship of Zion would drift upon. I always assumed the coming flood (which God promised never again by water) would be a flood of sexual perversion, promiscuity, homosexuality, etc. I’ve taught that the Bible is like a giant jigsaw puzzle that you constantly meditate upon to see if each piece of the puzzle is fitly joined together. In addition, one must be alive at the time the prophecy is being fulfilled to properly interpret it. This alone disqualified the triune builders of Laodicea. All of that said, I believe Caryl’s dream was from God to give us insight into what the coming flood is. (If you can receive it!) Have you ever heard of the New Age religion? We are headed into it.

I was twenty years in Pentecostalism before I discovered I was saved by grace. The discovery never came from a pulpit, but by obeying a command to (You) “Study to shew THYSELF approved unto God, a workman.” (2 Tim. 2:15) Nobody is going to tell you! Then I asked myself the question, “What else are thy hiding from me?” You “search the scriptures.” (Jn. 5:39) There is no one to tell you. They give you half-truths, which are the same as lies. All Rabbi Jesus claimed to be was “the Door” into the Father’s kingdom.

The Holy Ghost moved upon men of old as they wrote the scriptures. Only He has the correct interpretation. From Caryl’s dream, and from God giving me her spirit name, I am confident that the next flood is a flood of religion, spearheaded by TBN that will return the entire church under one shepherd, the Pope of Rome.

As a captain of the Old Ship of Zion, I believe this vessel will escape the flood. The waters of religion will buoy the ship, just as talk radio is kept on top of the liberal waters attempting to destroy our nation.

The Amnesty Bill was stopped! Harry Reid and Trent Lott accused Rush Limbaugh as the culprit. I thank God for every citizen who phoned and emailed their congressmen. Thank God we have men like Rush Limbaugh, Sean Hannity, Michael Savage and Michael Reagan to blow a trumpet over John McCain, Trent Lott, Lindsey Graham and Jon Kyl in Washington DC!

“As in the natural, so in the spiritual.” Who will blow a trumpet in Zion?

The pre-trib rapture doctrine was invented by John Darby of England in 1830 following his meeting with a young woman who was a MacDonald Illuminati family member in Scotland. She had a vision of Christ returning. John Darby was on the payroll of the Illuminati. C.I. Scofield, prior to his conversion in a Dwight L. Moody revival meeting, was an unscrupulous lawyer. God said of Laodicea, “Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.” (Rev. 3:17) But, yet, they are “highly esteemed among men (which) is abomination in the sight of God.” (Lk. 16:15)
