MESSAGE 13 - 2005

"YE ARE ALL BASTARDS!"

By Captain Gordon F. Nelson

"And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart. And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them." (Gen. 6:5-7)

I'm trusting God that I can convey in words the way God looks at our present generation. This may surprise you to find out that God is just as mad at this generation as He was the antediluvian world of Noah's generation. Luke confirms the fact that we are committing the same identical sin today that so upset our Creator, that God destroyed the world. God decided to start all over again with Noah and his family.

Luke, the physician, tells us, "And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. They did eat, they drank, they MARRIED WIVES, they WERE GIVEN IN MARRIAGE." (Lk. 17:26-27) (NIV translation – "Being given in marriage." The Cpt. Nelson translation, "Being given to marriage." Divorce and marrying again, and again, and again. They are hooked on marriage, always looking for their soul mate.)

"They did eat," is describing the initial date to get acquainted. "They drank." The NIV says, "People were eating, drinking, marrying and being given in (or to) marriage." This type of marriage always ends in divorce. Now, you must try again. After you've wine and dined in the fanciest restaurants, invariably premarital sex follows and often a pregnancy occurs. It wasn't planned, but it happened. Las Vegas lights, shows and restaurants are the number one choice in America for "eating" and all that follows.

"They did eat." Is that a sin? This eating results in marriage—"They married wives." Is this prophetic that after the eating and drinking they get married?

I hope you don't get upset with me over this message. I'm just a messenger boy, attempting to relay to planet earth a message from the God of the Old Testament, Who said to me, "Ye are all bastards!" I was as bewildered as you must be that He would show such disdain.

I haven't the ability to use such language like this on anyone. However, Jesus denounces the Pharisees, scribes, and hypocrites in a similar manner. "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation." (Matt. 23:14) Jesus devotes an entire chapter, Matthew 23, to name calling: "blind guides" – Matt. 23:16; "ye fools and blind" – Matt. 23:17; "thou blind Pharisee" – Matt. 23:26; "whited sepulchers" – Matt. 23:27; "ye serpents, ye generation of vipers" – Matt. 23:33. "For the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart." (1 Sam. 16:7)

All doors closed in visit to Oakland in July, then God spoke

I had sent out hundreds of invitations on both sides of the Bay Area to have a cup of coffee with the pastors. Many of these pastors have been on my mailing list for about fifteen years. I phoned the Teen Challenge in Oakland, leaving my name and my desire to preach to the boys. Please return my call, I asked. Perhaps, I thought, maybe the Lewelling Assemblies of God would call, or at least Bishop Joseph Wigfall. Lucky for me you preachers closed the doors.

Darlene Bleacher Welch, an Assemblies of God preacher's daughter, was my wife's best friend, and died in Oakland in July 2005. I'd have invited her to play her accordion and sing, but I may have had a dead body on my hands! Thank you preachers for removing this possibility by not accepting my offer for a cup of coffee.

God's use of such language, "Ye are all bastards," on this generation really gets ones attention. When one lives in a forest, it is difficult to see the trees. Our entire generation has been affected in our cerebellum by Roe v. Wade. "Ye are all bastards!" is a clarion call from heaven to wake us up from our slumber in this humanistic society. Roe v. Wade attempted to remove the curse placed upon a woman by God, "and he shall rule over thee." (Gen. 3:16) She has the same testimony as Lucifer, "I will be like the most High." (Isa. 14:14) Christian women, in their rebellion, will vote for Hillary and our nation will be destroyed.

"Awake, ye drunkards (Pentecostals), and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth." (Joel 1:5) "Neither do men put new wine (with government) into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out." (Matt. 9:17) The old bottle today, is these family owned non-profit religious incorporations that the IRS can break at will.

The humanistic god will break every one of them. This is "the end," which births the beginning of "the falling away." (2 Thes. 2:3) The Tom Patten trial caused a "falling away" of many to backslide.

“Henceforth know we no man after the flesh!”

“Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.” (Isa. 55:6-9)

God’s brain is so far superior to ours that ours is obsolete in trying to figure out God’s ways. We accept God; we do not try to figure Him out! Christians are totally ignorant of God’s ways. We imagine, if God is so loving He will adjust to our ways, that is, religion.

Man has bastardized the government in the church. Indirectly, we are telling God that He will simply have to find a way to adjust to our ways. Man did this through Roe v. Wade.

I had had a similar experience only one other time in my life that was comparable to this one. And God was angry then, too! I could tell He was angry by the screaming of His voice, “Henceforth know we no man after the flesh!” found in 2 Corinthians 5:16.

Following my hearing this angry voice speaking, God gave me the gift of the discerning of spirits. (1 Cor. 12:10). I could name “spirits” exactly as the first Adam would give names to the animals. My receiving this gift of the Spirit was like a confirmation sign that I heard from the God that Moses talked to. Hence, I knew from this previous encounter, God would use this message, “Ye are all bastards!” to open up my mind to comprehend the church as God sees it! As Christian mortals, we judge by the outward appearance, watching the televangelists on TBN and Daystar and conclude, God is doing fine, the gospel is being preached unto the entire world, and then the end shall come. (Matt. 24:14) Certainly not the end of the world, for “the earth abideth forever.” (Ecc. 1:4) “The end” of what? I ask.

“The end shall come.” (Matt. 24:14) Then what?

“The end” could be for Morris Cerullo, a worldwide healing-salvation televangelist. It was reported in our newspaper that Morris Cerullo has been indicted by the IRS on three counts of income tax evasion, covering a five-year period of time. The penalty on each count is three years in prison and an $100,000 fine. This is the same last resort method the government used to bring down the gangster Al Capone.

The Morris Cerullo religious non-profit incorporation consists of a five man board of directors, three of whom have the last name of Cerullo. The IRS encourages the church to follow their definition of a church, and throws out the red carpet inviting you in. “Come into my parlor,” said the spider to the fly.

Once the fly complies with the parlor rules, the spider knows the fly cannot escape. Every televangelist on TBN and Daystar is vulnerable to receiving a similar indictment. Is this “the end” of worldwide Christian television that the Bible is referring to? We know one thing from this incident, Morris Cerullo is not a Freemason.

How do you tell the flies to stay out of the IRS parlor? “Let the elders that rule,” (1 Tim. 5:17) but one elder has to be “as the gods” (Gen. 3:5) in our whirlpool churches as we spin around one guru we have chosen to take us to heaven. The only heaven being created is the preacher’s kingdom where he is crowned king by virtue of the non-profit religious incorporation.

Two Whirlpools

God once gave me a dream about two whirlpools. The one whirlpool represented Dr. Bebe Patten’s church, while the other one represented the Oakland Revival Tabernacle, owned by Dr. C.I. and Rose Lowry. We humans saw them as churches, but God viewed them as whirlpools. Because of that dream, I visited the Secretary of State’s office and discovered the similarities of their non-profit religious corporations.

It is only the grace of God when He permits us humans to see as He sees. “Ye are all bastards!” What was the sin of Genesis 6 that caused God to utter, “My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years”? (Gen. 6:3)

Which is the greater sin, sodomy or heterosexual adultery?

Years ago, as I studied this portion of scripture, I went to my own father and told him, “I can no longer carry your name, Hagglund. You are the son of a Baptist preacher, and yet you married an unbeliever.” I told my father, “God destroyed the world over the same sin you committed, I will destroy a name.” All my father’s brothers had girls, so I was the only one to carry on the family name. I literally destroyed it by a legal name change.

I’ll give you a test into peering into the mind of God and viewing things from His perspective. Which is the greater sin? sodomy or heterosexual marriage as entered into by the sons of God? “Then the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven.”

(Gen. 19:24) God destroyed two cities over the sin of sodomy. God destroyed the whole world over the sons of God going into the daughters of men (Cain). No one in Sodom and Gomorrah mixed the “holy seed.”

It makes me sad that few ask the question, “What did the sons of God do to incur such wrath upon men?” I’m glad you asked! They mingled the “holy seed” of the lineage of Seth, with the unholy seed of the daughters of Cain. I was reared in a home of half-free and half-slave. It is no fun, and it is where generational curses begin to grow. I have a sister in hell due to this ungodly mingling of the “holy seed” with a non-believer.

“That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.” (Gen. 6:2) Dogs do the same! Such marriages usually end in divorce because they didn’t seek the father, or the eldest male for his blessing upon the marriage. When a marriage intermingles the seed of Seth with the seed of Cain, the children are considered by God as bastards, and generational curses begin.

Creflo Dollar speaks out

On Sunday, July 24, 2005 on TBN, Creflo Dollar, another one of these “flies” of the IRS, was screaming about the subject of lust. He has a series of messages on this subject that you can purchase. Having just recently completed this series on lust, he was really fired up and was made even more conscious of the lust that was going on in his church, in the parking lot, with bodies simply wanting to come together.

I couldn’t help but think of the days of Noah. What was water then, is sexual immorality now! The waters of heterosexuality have suddenly risen to where Pastor Dollar fears for the vulnerability of his own daughter in his own church house. “Don’t you walk in here and show a pretext of being a Christian to where you marry my daughter! If you don’t want her after you marry her, give her back to me! If you go to beating on her, I’m coming after you. I’ll put your lights out with my fists! They may put me in jail, but I’ll get me my pound of flesh. You want my daughter, you come and see me!” It is a wonder the newspapers and media didn’t pick up on that one! The media picked up on Jimmy Swaggart when he said, “If a gay man propositioned me, I’d kill him!” I’ve got news for you, Jimmy, they are coming to your church, and the IRS and the ACLU, under the guise of civil rights, will make you think “the end” is here for you.

AIDS and the prosperity message drive the world into the church. Men are frightened to have sex with a barfly, so they go to church. “God loves you sinners: come on in!” scream the preachers. God loves you, and so do we. One can see the fallacy of two people, Creflo and his wife, attempting to police a congregation of 5,000 people.

“Neither repented they of their murders (abortion), nor of their sorceries (Harry Potter), nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts (stealing the pastor’s own daughter).” (Rev. 9:21) Creflo Dollar is screaming, and the gay community hasn’t even decided to come into his church yet. I’ve previously warned they are coming to your church to find love. “And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.” (Gen. 6:5)

“All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers.” (Jn. 10:8) Since Roe v. Wade, preachers have ignored the fact that the father’s seed is his daughter. I admire Creflo Dollar immensely for declaring his “holy seed” created that child.

Abraham seeks a wife for Isaac

As in the natural, so in the spirit. In Genesis 24 is one of God’s most beautiful love stories in the Bible. Abraham, a type of God the Father, said unto his eldest servant, Eliezer, a type of the Holy Ghost, “But thou shalt go unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac (a type of Christ).” (Gen. 24:4) The servant was sent on a mission to pick a wife that will be pleasing to his master, father Abraham. “And the servant took ten camels (type of the Holy Ghost with the nine gifts of the Spirit) of the camels of his master, and departed; for all the goods of his master were in his hand: and he arose, and went to Mesopotamia, unto the city of Nahor. And he made his camels to kneel down without the city by a well of water (church) at the time of the evening, even the time that women go out to draw water.” (Gen. 24:10) The servant begins to pray that he find a damsel that will be pleasing to Abraham. If the damsel can pass the inspection by the father, Abraham, the servant knows Isaac will be pleased. The damsel is a type of the bride of Christ to whom we are betrothed to marry.

This is the reason the pre-trib rapture doctrine is so damnable! As the church, we are only betrothed when we receive the “baptism of the Holy Ghost, and with fire” (Matt. 3:11), not at conversion. “And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden earring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold.” (Gen. 24:22) It is at this moment and time, by the accepting of her gold bracelets and golden earring that she is betrothed to Isaac, based of course upon Rebekah’s father, Bethuel, and her brother Laban’s acceptance.

“Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot speak unto thee bad or good. Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken. And it came to pass, that, when Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth. And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things.” (Gen. 24:50-53)

Rebekah, by the acceptance of these gifts, was being betrothed (stronger than an engagement) to a man she had never seen. As in the natural, so in the spirit. Eliezer, a type of the Comforter, has gone out into a far country seeking a bride for Father God’s son. Jesus declared, “Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter (Eliezer) will not come unto you (bearing gifts); but if I depart, I will send him unto you.” (Jn. 16:7)

You are not betrothed, or “sealed unto the day of redemption” (Eph. 4:30) unless you are wearing His earrings so you can “hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches” (Rev. 2:7), “because they are spiritually discerned.” (1 Cor. 2:14) Eliezer must place bracelets on the hands of the virtuous woman as “She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff. She stretcheth out her hand to the poor.” (Prov. 31:19-20)

The serpent on the pole was lifted up by Moses

My friend, you’ve been lied to by the preachers who hold up the serpent on the pole, simply because the crowds respond to a dead carcass on a pole. Christian television is a type of Moses lifting up the serpent in the wilderness of Sin. (Jn. 3:14) The people were healed, but still stuck in the wilderness where they died, having received none of the promises that reside in the Promised Land. “Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do always err in their heart; and they have not known my ways. So I sware in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.” (Heb. 3:10-11)

Modern marriage is simply a contract

In Hebrews 3:11, it plainly says Jesus (after the flesh) did not give you rest. It doesn’t take a brain surgeon to comprehend you are still in the wilderness of Sin. The rest comes after Eliezer places an earring in your ear so you can hear spiritually, and bracelets upon your hands as evidence that your hands are anointed. Rebekah has only one final test. She must find favor in the eyes of Abraham (a type of God) before the marriage can be consummated with his son.

This is why the scriptures say, “What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.” (Mk. 10:9) Ninety percent of all marriages performed in America today, God (or the father) had nothing to do with the joining. Therefore, you are not in a covenant relationship, but a contract.

Marriage has been a contract since the days of Moses. Moses granted the Israelite men to divorce for every cause. “Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?”

(Matt. 19:7) Israel was accustomed to marriage being a contract, but it was strictly for the male to decide when his wife no longer pleased him. We have the complete reversal in today's society. Ninety-five percent of all divorce today is initiated by the woman, "for any cause"—incompatibility, and she is rewarded for doing so with her fifty percent of all communal property. Oprah Winfrey's popularity is that the program provides strength to weak women to step out! "They ain't gonna take it anymore!"

The regard for the "holy seed"

The beautiful part of this magnificent love story is the regard for "the seed" that would come out of Rebekah's womb. This is the only way generational curses are stopped. Father is a type of God, so he issues out curses and blessings.

Before sending Rebekah away, the entire household of her father, Bethuel, prayed over her "seed." Isn't that beautiful? One has to stop these generational curses at the mouth of the river. "And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, be thou the mother of thousands of millions, and let THY SEED possess the gate of those which hate them." (Gen. 24:60) Can you imagine family members praying over their sister in this manner, that "her seed" be the mother of thousands of millions? This family must have known about the prophecy God gave to Abraham, "And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered." (Gen. 13:16) Talk about a baby making machine! These family members of Rebekah believed God for "her seed" to be fruitful and to multiply and replenish the earth. (Gen. 9:1)

In praying over that "seed," God was protecting the seed from generational curses, which is cursing all these Gentile marriages in the end time by the utter disregard of the father's consent to his daughter's hand in marriage. Young men, mama's boys themselves, go to the wife's mother for her blessing after the baby is already in the womb. Premarital sex is such a sin in God's eyes. How can one go to the father? He may "stone you until dead" with words the young man does not want to hear. This is why such a marriage is never "bound in heaven." "What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder." (Mk. 10:9) That daughter represents some man's seed. She is under her father's authority and covering until he walks down an aisle of a church and gives "his seed" to another man. "Who giveth this woman away?" is a necessary part of the wedding ceremony. Unless that father gave "his seed" away, she was stolen and God did not join them together. The "seed" of such a marriage are now bastards that will continue the generational curse until someone steps to the plate and does it correctly.

The only way marriage is honorable is by honoring "the seed" that created a man's daughter

This is the only way you stop these generational curses. A man who claims to have such power to stop them another way is a fraud! One cannot stop generational curses simply by the laying on of hands. One only gets AIDS because he is a whoremonger. “Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.” (Heb. 13:4) God judges them by AIDS. They’ll have the rest of their life to think about their sin. “Marriage is honourable.” The only way it is honourable is if the man humbled himself and asked the owner of that seed to give him a clear “bill of sale.” In a Jewish wedding, the dowry seals the agreement. The first thing a father will want to know is, Do you have a job? Can you support a wife? The main reason they bypass the father is pride. If you’re truly in love, pride will not stop you.

Mothers will look from the purely emotional side of love, which ultimately proves to be the fulfillment of lust, not love. In love, one must get direction from the Lord, as did Eliezer in his quest for a wife for Isaac.

Now that the family members have completed their prayers to bless Rebekah their sister and her seed, she is ready to mount the camels and meet her new father-in-law and husband. I’d like to think that this journey home took 3½ days by camel to the Promised Land. As Christians, we must endure the first 3½ years of Daniel’s week.

After the betrothal, it is still 3½ days before that marriage

As a church, those who believe in a “fly away tomorrow” doctrine, do not want to be inspected or answer the questions of Isaac’s father. The door to a successful, God anointed marriage, is to go through “the Door,” Who in this case is the Father of the bridegroom. “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber,” and a bastard. (Jn. 10:1) Bastards are born outside of wedlock.

I heard the God of the Old Testament screaming at me, “Ye are all bastards!” I knew it was to expand my mind so as not to be duped into believing the “the traditions of men” in this humanistic culture which is immune to the truth.

Refusal on the part of the male to go through “the Door” into the father’s presence is what curses his own seed and starts the generational curses so prevalent in our land today. Jesus is the Door to the Father’s kingdom.

God could remove generational curses simply by the laying on of hands, but He won’t. God wants man to repent! It is a horrible sin that goes undetected in the church. “Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed.” (Jas. 5:16) Confessing that you are a bastard would more readily heal you than by any laying on of hands or prophecy.

“And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.” (Lk. 17:26)
“If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?” (Psa. 11:3) Humanists, like termites, continually eat away at the foundation.

The nation will be witnessing the crucifixion of John Roberts while the church, by its apathy, chimes in with the mob, “Crucify him!”

We are currently witnessing a crucifixion of a Catholic by the name of John Roberts Jr., right before our eyes, by the Northeast sector Senators. No Christian of any breed can pass the Charles Schumer, Ted Kennedy, Patrick Leahy, Nancy Pelosi, Arlen Specter litmus test of the slaughter of 45 million babies’ blood that goes screaming up to God, crying for vengeance. Who is to blame? The church. We are supposed to be the salt of the earth. The church would rather compete with Hollywood production of films than be salt. Salt has a bite to it when thrown on an open wound, but it has the strength to heal. “Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.” (Matt. 5:13)

Bastardize not only your own seed, but the rapture (or a marriage) that bypasses the Father’s acceptance of the bride

If you can read, Apostle Peter told you in his most famous speech on the Day of Pentecost that nobody is going anywhere until the moon turns to blood. “And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke: the sun shall be turned into darkness, and the MOON INTO BLOOD, BEFORE that great and notable day of the Lord come (the rapture of the church).” (Acts 2:19-20)

Whenever the church attempts to create a rapture prior to the moon turning to blood, they have bastardized the “notable day of the Lord come,” just as they have bastardized marriage. Marriage is only honourable if the father gave away “his seed.”

The Feminist Movement is very apparent in these foundational doctrines of marriage and the rapture. For God so loved the world, that he planted His seed in the womb of a virgin by the Holy Ghost. Catholicism attempts to feminize “the seed” by declaring the Virgin Mary as a co-redeemer.

The rapture doctrine is bastardized because the betrothal is insufficient of itself to be a valid marriage. The father was never involved. In a Jewish wedding, nothing is finalized until the father of the groom has accepted the bride-to-be as his daughter-in-law. “Ye are all bastards” because you’ve broken all the laws that God has validated.

When “the end cometh,” the Old Ship of Zion will be a type of those ten camels that brought Rebekah from Mesopotamia (type of the world) through “the hour of temptation” (when Christian television came to an end by the IRS and the ACLU indictments)

“And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged (with burdens of debt by use of credit) with surfeiting, and drunkenness (headaches, hangovers), and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. For as a snare (a trap) shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth. Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.” (Lk. 21:34-36)

This is exactly why the Old Ship of Zion exists; for the purpose of escaping all these things that are coming upon the earth during the first half of Daniel’s 70th week.

God gives you another sign that is yet unfulfilled, that must happen before the rapture. “Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet BEFORE THE COMING of the great and dreadful day of the LORD (His wrath).” (Mal. 4:5) Why can’t preachers tell you the truth? Follow the money, bub! No money is coming into the coffers preaching the truth. To tell folks the truth, you’d be exactly like Noah. “By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.” (Heb. 11:7) Noah preached 120 years and never got a convert.
