MESSAGE 9 - 2005

BIBLE CODE BROKEN

By Captain Gordon F. Nelson

Addressing a Samaritan, "Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews." (Jn. 4:22)

This is a prophecy of the end time church, forecasting the time when the engrafted branch, the Gentile Church, is becoming blind. Apostle Paul warned of this day. "For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?" (Rom. 11:15)
"We know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews."

The natural branches are being grafted back into the vine, or haven't you noticed! "And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree; boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee. Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear: for if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee." (Rom. 11:17-21)

Do not be ignorant concerning this mystery!

"Ye (Gentiles) worship ye know not what...for salvation is of the Jews." This is a prophetic utterance so that when this Bible Code is deciphered, the believers will know the wild olive branch has been cut off from the good olive tree. "For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this MYSTERY, (There you have it, ladies and gentlemen, it is a Bible MYSTERY.) lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in." (Rom. 11:24-25)

"The kingdom of God is nigh at hand"

Next question, When is "the fulness of the Gentiles be come in"? Jesus said, "Behold the fig tree, and all the trees; when they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves (no one will have to tell you) that summer is now nigh at hand. So likewise ye (Gentiles), when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God (composed of Jews and Gentiles as one body) is nigh at hand (time for Jews to be grafted back into the good olive tree, Jesus Christ). ” (Lk. 21:29-31) “We know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews,” not of the Catholics, nor of the Evangelicals.

Evangelicals & Catholics Together: The Christian Mission in the Third Millennium

The breaking of this Bible Code for the end time church is the fulfillment of another prophecy concerning the timing of when to start to build this kingdom of God of Evangelicals and Jews Together: The Christian Mission in the Third Millennium. “And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed.” (Dan. 2:44)

“Woe unto you lawyers” (Lk. 11:52)

Lawyers, like Chuck Colson and Pat Robertson, were involved in creating the document, Evangelicals and Catholics Together: The Christian Mission in the Third Millennium. Protestantism, again, relied on lawyers to tell them how to worship the Spirit God, while they themselves serve the mammon god. Our own news media will not inform us of the great revival going on in Brazil. Churches with 15,000 – 20,000 people are not uncommon. These are all ex-Catholics filling up Pentecostal churches. The Bible plainly teaches, “And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.” (Rev. 17:6)

The Morris Cerullo salvation-healing revivals in South America could very well be the reason for such mega-sized churches. We need tax reform and we need to abolish the IRS. If the Pontiff is the least bit upset with evangelicals, our own IRS is soon investigating them for income tax fraud. Because the garments of the priests flowed with the blood of martyrs in Brazil, was our Christian church put under duress? Do you want the blood to flow in America as in Brazil? The lawyers, Chuck Colson and Pat Robertson bellied up! Make up the document, Evangelicals and Catholics Together: The Christian Mission in the Third Millennium, and we’ll sign! Practically all evangelical leaders signed this document, including the Assemblies of God. Bishop G.E. Patterson and the Church of God in Christ did not sign. This could be the reason the Bishop from Memphis, Tennessee is such a blessing in such a dark hour that we live.

“What shall be the sign?”

“Tell us,” the disciples asked of Jesus privately, “when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign (singular) of thy coming, and of the end of the world? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no (one) man (singular) deceive you. For many (singular men) shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ (Being “lords over God’s heritage” via family owned non-profit religious incorporations. You are a dumb sheep in his sheepfold where he rules “as god.”); and shall deceive many.” (Matt. 24:3-5)

Remember what the sign was that said, “know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.” (Lk. 21:30) It was the sudden shooting forth of the fig tree (Israel) and all the trees (Russia, China, North Korea, European Union) and the appearance of all the false prophets. By all of this, you know of your own selves the kingdom of God, composed of Jews and Evangelicals has come.

Calvinism vs. Arminianism

“Ye (Gentiles) worship ye know not what.” Apostle John, described the second beast to come out of the earth; “And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.” (Rev. 13:11) In its truest sense, he is describing the Papacy that has been split into two factions since the days of Constantine.

In a similar fashion, the Evangelical church can’t decide how they are even saved. “Ye worship ye know not what.” Christians have debated and argued over Calvinism and Arminianism. This is probably some Freemason lawyer trick to keep our “horns” divided. The truth is that neither of them are correct. It is attempting to describe what a chicken looks like to someone that has never seen a chicken. You tell him a chicken is much like a dog or cat. Regardless of who wins the debate, no one is any wiser as to how a chicken looks.

The two horns of Revelation 13:11 also speak loudly to the evangelical church. “Two horns like a lamb,” speaks of the church from two extremes; to the left or to the right. The two horns being the doctrines of Calvinism or Arminianism. Which are you?

A highway

When I was pondering and debating this question in my mind, suddenly I heard God speak to me. “It is neither to the right nor to the left.” God never speaks a sermon, just the right word. The answer to this question of Calvinism on the right, and Arminianism on the left, became suddenly irrelevant. What lies dead center? “And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein.” (Isa. 35:8)

John Bunyan, sitting in a New Bedford jailhouse, gave us The Pilgrim’s Progress. This book is all about a highway that leads to the Eternal City. This book is second only to the Bible as one of the most read books each year. It is a must for every believer.

It is not either this way or that way, but a highway. Apostle John says it the best. “But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth (Gk.-continues to cleanse) us from all sin.” (1 Jn. 1:7) One simply stays on the highway, with no detours, and it will lead you home.

All things are lawful

Even the Apostle Peter complained of “some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest...unto their own destruction.” (2 Pet. 3:16) Most of this eternal security doctrine is derived from what good Baptists would declare Pauline truth. In 1 Corinthians 6:12 and 1 Corinthians 10:23, the Apostle Paul reiterates four times that, “all things are lawful.” I have to side with Peter on this one. Paul simply makes some statements “hard to be understood,” and thus send the “unlearned and unstable” to hell.

Apostle Paul was forever writing corrective letters as if he were the Pope of Rome. But, if Paul just happened to be fallible, who would correct him? God gave me the answer to that one in a dream, and I saw the dearly beloved Apostle John completely left in the shadows because of the church’s infatuation with “our beloved brother Paul.” Apostle John writes so simply, though a fool, one cannot err therein. I rest my case in the hands of a man who loved to listen to the very heartbeat of the Master, who said, “But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth (Gk.-continues to cleanse as we continue to walk in the light) us from all sin.” (1 Jn. 1:7)

“Study to shew thyself approved” (2 Tim. 2:15)

“Ye worship ye know not what.” There is very little you learn about the Bible by simply listening to canned sermons from the pulpits in America, designed for “itching ears” who “will not endure sound doctrine.” (2 Tim. 4:3) Nothing supersedes individual Bible study, allowing God’s Word to speak to you as a person. Every time I prepare a message to “feed my sheep,” I’m immediately in a classroom under the dictates of the Instructor, the Holy Ghost. This very morning, the Holy Ghost gave me the title for this message, Bible Code Broken.

This Spirit of Truth, which is the Holy Spirit of God, is a type of the pillar of fire and the cloud that the children of Israel followed in the wilderness of Sin. “And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night: he took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.” (Ex. 13:21-22)

I recall the very first dream that God gave me as a twenty-one year old, classified 1A for the draft. I had only been saved about six months, just a fledgling in the Lord. In this dream I was enlisting in the Navy. I was classified 1A anyway, what did I have to lose by enlisting? Hence, I quit my job and my pastor was completely disgusted with me, telling me it was the spaghetti I had eaten the night before!

Within 28 days I was sent home, all because these particular officers stumbled over the fact that I didn't have a girlfriend. I told them to no avail, "I had one for three years! I found the Lord, so I haven't had time to find another one. I just don't have one now."

Finally I saw God at work. Didn't I have a dream? God is messing up their minds to send me home to work for God. Wow! This is the God I wanted to serve, and I fell in love with Him all the more for this great deliverance! Anyone can go fight the Japs, but only a chosen vessel can do combat and win wars against the devil.

That particular dream was a type of the children of Israel's "pillar of a cloud by day", and "a pillar of fire by night." "After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight." (Hos. 6:2) This prophecy is for an end time generation, speaking to an end time people who will literally create the kingdom of God on earth by being grafted into the olive tree, Jesus Christ, to literally bring forth "life from the dead." (Rom. 11:15) "For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits." God is literally going to take the blindness off of the Jew in regards to their true Messiah. When you ask? When "the fulness of the Gentiles be come in." (Rom. 11:25)

"Then shall we know, IF WE FOLLOW ON to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth." (Hos. 6:3)

We are living in the third day, the third millennium when all this is going to transpire. To experience this revival, we must keep our eyes on the cloud, but the blindness that was once on Israel is coming upon the Gentile church. "Ye worship ye know not what." God is always on the march forward. You must "follow on to know the LORD." "But if we walk in the light (forward), as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another." (1 Jn. 1:7)

Calvinism always looks back to the sixteenth century. D. James Kennedy has on his campus the John Knox Building and the John Calvin Building, monuments to a theology that is dead. My God, man! The whole idea of Christianity is to grow up! "But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ." (2 Pet. 3:18)

The church was in the Dark Ages with the priests selling indulgences to forgive you of any sins you'd commit the next week. The light of truth had gone out completely. That is the reason it was called the Dark Ages. Man cannot save himself. It is God that goes out "to seek and to save that which was lost." (Lk. 19:10) How does God do it? God sends a cloud and leads man out! Martin Luther simply saw the cloud called "justification by faith."

Martin Luther was a Catholic priest. He believed exactly like every other priest during the Dark Ages. God always goes forward, man wants to revert to the past. This is all ecumenicalism is. We want to return to the Dark Ages. We repent over visiting Martin Luther. Martin Luther only had a glimmer of light, "The just shall live by faith." (Rom. 1:17) The Lutherans formed an entire organization around this one cloud that had visited Martin Luther.

John Knox, the founder of Presbyterians, chanted the same message, "The just shall live by faith." Along came John Calvin, a tremendous Bible teacher, but he merely confirmed that the cloud that visited Martin Luther was from God. With all due respect to D. James Kennedy's monuments of historical faith, these men began to organize around a cloud that visited Martin Luther.

Under the doctrine of predestination, as they understood it, the church would have returned from whence it came, surrendering to the Papacy of Rome. But God! God sent "a pillar of fire" to shed light in a darkened world. They say the blackest part of the night is just before the dawn. John and Charles Wesley saw the light! The cloud by day and the pillar of fire moved on, but without the Calvinists. Someway, God has to always move outside the established religion. "Let us go forth therefore UNTO HIM WITHOUT THE CAMP, bearing his reproach." (Heb. 13:13) John Wesley preached that "the just shall live by faith" was all well and good, but, "Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord." (Heb. 12:14)

The diehard Presbyterians admit Martin Luther saw the cloud, "The just shall live by faith," but John Wesley just ate too much spaghetti! Man builds a box that he believes any reasonable God should be content with. God is a "now" God. "To day if ye will hear his voice." (Heb. 4:7) He never retreats to how it was when he first found the Lord. "Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love." (Rev. 2:4) It is not how you started the race, but how you finish.

I'm on my home stretch for the finish line! I'll be 85 in January. This has never been normal for me to pump out a message a week, but you'll have to bear with me as I'm coming down the outside stretch as fast as I can run to cross that finish line. If I've got anything to pass on to posterity, I must do it now.

The Methodists did exactly as the Presbyterians and the Lutherans. They organized a religion and forgot to keep their eye on the cloud. When the cloud moved on, it moved on without the Methodists, which is par for the course.

What I'm trying to say is that religion is inept at following clouds. Lo and behold, in a Topeka, Kansas Bible College, men and women suddenly began to speak in an unknown tongue during a prayer meeting. God walked off and left the Methodists, just as He had the Lutherans and the Presbyterians. The Pentecostal Church was born.
