MESSAGE 10 - 2006

WHO ARE YOU?

By Cpt. Gordon F. Nelson

Email to the Captain

Excuse me, but who are you that has sent me this email?
Barry (a Messianic Jew)

Captain's Response

This question was also directed to John the Baptist by the religionists that lived in his day. Spirits never die. "Then shall the dust (your body) return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it." (Ecc. 12:7) Those into religion sense something different about a prophet of God. He doesn't speak like one of them "temple worshippers." "Who are you, John? with your girdle of camel's hair and your diet of locust and wild honey?"

If you're not the Christ, then who are you? "And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No. Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esias. And they which were sent were of the Pharisees." (Jn. 1:21-24)

"The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness (Heb. – good deeds, piety [towards God], merciful [kindness]) thereof is as the flower of the field: the grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the Spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: BUT THE WORD OF OUR GOD SHALL STAND FOREVER." (Isa. 40:6-8)

Israel had not heard a word from God in over four hundred years. Malachi was the last prophet's voice from God sent to Israel. The heavens were as brass, and man only had his religion to trust in, until John.

Nehemiah's Wall was his pulpit

Nehemiah received letters from King Artaxerxes authorizing the rebuilding of the walls. "Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.” (Neh. 2:9-10)

Nehemiah encourages the people to help him rebuild the walls of Jerusalem that were torn down. “Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me (to build their faith); as also the king’s words that he had spoken to me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work. But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing they do? will ye rebel against the king?” (Neh. 2:18-19)

This wall that Nehemiah was building, was Nehemiah’s pulpit. Nehemiah believed God was directing him, as the captain, to be responsible only to Yahweh for its ultimate completion. “But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth.” (Neh. 4:7)

Sounds much like the opposition to George W. Bush in Washington, DC. He accepted Yeshua as his Savior and stopped getting drunk like he did at Yale when he was part of Skull and Bones. John Kerry loved him much better as a drunk. For this, they are duty bound to have him impeached so his legacy will never again be remembered among men. The humiliation of a bonesman seeking forgiveness from the Son of God is unpardonable.

Noah’s Ark was his pulpit

“And God said to Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth. Make thee an ark of gopher wood; rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.”¹ (Gen. 6:13-14)

Because God told Noah to “make thee an ark,” the building of this ark became Noah’s pulpit. “And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly.” (2 Pet. 2:5) Noah was a preacher, and his pulpit was the ark he was building. Rain? The people in Noah’s day had never seen it rain. “But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.” (Gen. 2:6) This was the only watering they had seen.

¹ C.I. Scofield footnote: It should be noted the word translated “pitch” in Gen. 6:14 is the same word translated “atonement” in Lev. 17:11. It is the atonement that keeps out the waters of judgment and makes the believer’s position in Christ “safe and secure.”

Jordan Riverbank was the Baptist's pulpit

A riverbank was John the Baptist's church. Nehemiah had a wall for his pulpit. Noah preached from an ark. Can you believe God gave me a website, email and US mail as my pulpit?

I heard God's voice speak to me, "I give unto you a ship, and you are to call it the Old Ship of Zion, and you are the Captain. You are to have the same government that is aboard a ship." With those instructions given to me by God, my website, www.shipofzion.com, becomes holy ground, and it is from this pulpit that I preach the word of Yahweh.

The father of talk radio had two pulpits

Presbyterian firebrand Carl McIntire dies at 95

The Father of Talk Radio

Pastor of Collingswood Bible Presbyterian Church

Staunch foe of Communism and liberalism

Founded 2 denominations, built media empire

by Jerry L. Van Marter

The Rev. Carl McIntire, 95, a firebrand fundamentalist who founded two conservative denominations after being defrocked by the Presbyterian Church in 1936, died on March 19 in a hospital near his home church in Collingswood, NJ.

After his dismissal from the main body of the church, McIntire picketed nearly every General Assembly for more than half a century.

In his later years he was only a shadow of the immensely influential preacher who founded the Presbyterian Church of America, then after 12 years bolted from it - claiming it had become too liberal - to start the Bible Presbyterian Church.

McIntire last attended a General Assembly of the PC(USA) in 1997, in Syracuse, NY, where, wheelchair-bound and nearly blind, he took up his customary place outside the main entrance to the Assembly hall, displaying placards railing against the church's support of the World Council of Churches and National Council of Churches, among other "liberal" sins.

Through a newspaper, The Christian Beacon, and a radio program, The 20th Century Reformation Hour, McIntire reached a wide audience of Christians over more than two decades. At the height of the Cold War, he was a virulent anti-Communist - but he once said that global Communism was not as serious a threat as a worldwide takeover by the Roman Catholic Church.

McIntire's media empire eventually collapsed under the burden of his continuous battles with the Federal Communications Commission, local governments and fellow Christians. After his radio program went off the air in 1973, he was forced to sell off most of his holdings.

McIntire's wife, Fairy, died in 1992 after a marriage of 61 years. Three years later, he wed his longtime secretary, Alice Goff. In addition to his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Celeste McIntire Bashaw and Marianna Clark; a son, Thomas; and 13 grandchildren.

Memorial services are scheduled for March 26 at Collingswood Bible Presbyterian Church.

Did you note that the father of talk radio, Dr. Carl McIntire said that global Communism was not as serious a threat as a worldwide takeover by the Roman Catholic Church? Some of the leaders in recommending the document, Evangelicals and Catholics Together: the Christian Mission in the Third Millennium, were ex-Watergate felon, Chuck Colson and Pat Robertson.

Ship of Zion is the Captain's pulpit

This ship is designed for the wayfaring Jew that has just recently been visited by “the Holy Ghost, and with fire” that John the Baptist prophesied, “I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire.” (Matt. 3:11) Once a wayfaring Jew receives this Comforter that Jesus said He would pray the Father to send (Jn. 14:16), then what? What happens to this tongue-talking Jew that has just been baptized in the Holy Ghost, and with fire? Does anyone care? “And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring (Jew) men, though fools, shall not err therein.” (Isa. 35:8) This website will always be there for you, long after the church has been closed. Two gays can approach your pastor or rabbi to get married. If he refuses, they can call the ACLU and have your church closed.

Rushbo's radio pulpit

My format is much like a Rush Limbaugh radio program. There are no private séances! You are talking to the world, as a ditto head, once you phone Rushbo, the talk show host. By the way, Rush's pulpit is his being a host to a tremendous audience daily via radio. Don't you think Nancy Pelosi, Chuck Schumer, Ted Kennedy, Hillary Clinton have nightmares over this one man declaring, “I am on loan from God!”? If the Democrats win in November, they'll invoke the “Fairness Doctrine,” thereby attempting to shut old Rushbo up! This is how the liberal left dealt with Carl McIntire, the father of talk radio. The government seized the radio station of this Presbyterian pastor, who then preached from a ship in the Atlantic onto the mainland. “For every one that doeth evil hateth the truth, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.” (Jn. 3:20) El Rushbo will expose the darkness of liberalism.

“Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!” (Isa. 5:20)

Where is all that compassion and understanding shown Patrick Kennedy by a biased CFR-controlled mass news media? The darling of the mass news media is John McCain, and the villain is El Rushbo. Rush explains a lot about the games politicians play to all of us 20 million “dittoheads”. We all love him for it!

The Captain is trying to make a point

As a Freemason, what George Washington opposed was the Jacobite's of France infiltrating American Freemasonry. These "illuminized" Masons were inheritors of the same tradition introduced into the lodges of France in 1787 by the disciples of Weishaupt, "patriarch of the Jacobins."

The Captain is unable to substantiate that the Protocols existed prior to the 20th Century. No one knows who wrote these 24 Protocols, however, it seems they should have been called "The Protocols of the Illuminati," rather than of the "Learned Elders of Zion." The only organizations to implement the Protocols were the House of Rothschild and the Illuminati, which includes "The Committee of 300," the title of a book by John Coleman.²

I made the statement that the John Birch Society is 51% Protestant. This needs to be corrected to 50% Protestant, 49% Catholic, and 1% Jews to total 100%.

I rest my case about the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion into the hands of Dr. Stanley Monteith, with excerpts from his book, "Brotherhood of Darkness," pp. 61-62, & 131.

It is impossible to understand what happened during that era unless you know about The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion. The document first appeared in Russia in 1905; it claimed that Zionists were behind the wars and revolutions of the nineteenth century, and planned to seize control of the world. Many Russians believed The Protocols, and they began to persecute the Jews and destroy their property. When the czar refused to intervene, Jacob Schiff began plotting to depose him. He provided revolutionary literature to the Russian soldiers captured by the Japanese during the Russo-Japanese War in 1905, and when they returned home, some of the soldiers were disillusioned with the czar's government.⁸⁰ It is even possible that some of the soldiers who participated in the March revolution read Jacob Schiff's literature, so he may have played a part in inciting the March revolution, but that was not the Bolshevik Revolution. When Antony Sutton researched the State Department intelligence files, he found documents showing that English and American financiers provided funding for the Bolsheviks, but that fact is never mentioned today. Could it be that the story of Jacob Schiff's $20 million gift to the Bolsheviks was contrived to divert attention away from the real source of their funding?⁸¹

The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion were circulated throughout Europe during the early decades of the twentieth century, and many people believed them. That led, at least in part, to the anti-Semitism that brought Adolph Hitler to power. Henry Ford circulated The Protocols in the United States and wrote a book entitled The International Jew which claimed that Jewish bankers were responsible for World War I and the Bolshevik Revolution. Henry Ford supported the Nazis, and Hitler acknowledged his support by awarding him the highest German medal available to civilians. The Ford factories in Germany provided trucks, tanks, and vehicles for Hitler's armed forces.⁸² That would have been logical if Henry Ford really believed that Jewish bankers were responsible for the Bolshevik Revolution, and Hitler opposed them. The problem is that Henry Ford also built a factory complex in Russia to help the faltering communist economy. Why did Ford promote anti-Semitism in the United States, support Adolph Hitler in Germany, and support the Bolsheviks in Russia?⁸³

At the present time, the Ford Motor Company has six factories in Communist China, and plans to build more. Henry Ford helped the Bolsheviks in the 1930s, and today his company is helping the Chinese communists. Why?⁸⁴

It is impossible to understand what is happening today without understanding the origin of The Protocols. While going through Colonel Edward Mandell House's papers at Yale University some years ago, I came across a copy of The Protocols of the Meeting of the Zionist Men of Wisdom. It was essentially the same document as The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, but the wording was different, which suggested it was a different translation of the original documented

The Protocols were written in French, smuggled into Russia in 1905 where they were translated into Russian, and later transported to Great Britain where Victor Marsden translated them into English. Copies of Victor Marsden's translation are available in the United States today, but that translation is entirely different from the Colonel House version, which suggests that Colonel House's version came from another source, perhaps from the original document. Who was Colonel House, and where did he get his copy of The Protocols? Was he an anti-Semite?

Colonel House was able to control the men who led the world between 1912 and 1938 because he had the ability to "ooze" thoughts into their minds. Arthur Howden Smith knew him, and commented on his mystical ability:"

p.131 - "...Colonel Edward Mandell House manipulated the leaders of the Western world during the early decades of the twentieth century, and helped J. P. Morgan organize the Council on Foreign Relations after World War I. I found a copy of the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion among House's papers at Yale University, which suggests he was involved with either the writing or the distribution of that scurrilous document. New Age writers tell us he was an occultist...."

Col. E. Mandell House's "Philip Dru: Administrator"

Col. E. Mandell House, the mystery man of Woodrow Wilson's Cabinet, wrote a book entitled, Philip Dru: Administrator.³ It is an amazing book when you consider that it was written in 1913, and that the predictions made have come to pass. It is incredible evidence that there are men of great wealth directing the affairs of men, and that we are all marching to the tune of their drummer. The sad part is that we don't really know who the drummer is.

Col. House's book has to rank alongside such books as Brave New World and 1984, which was also made into a movie. I believe Col. E. Mandell House figured out how to conquer America without firing a single shot. He discovered the weak link in our founding father's system of checks and balances. Of the Executive, Judicial and Legislative branches, the weak link he found was the Judicial branch. But, in order to pack it with liberals, one must first control the Executive branch. This is why the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) was born. This is why the Republicans and Democrats can wine and dine together: they both belong to the same club—CFR. The last American President to sit in the White House without being a card-carrying member of CFR was Calvin Coolidge.

According to House's book, a fictitious character named Rockland becomes President on the heels of a depression. Upon becoming President, Rockland closes all the banks. He immediately sets up public works programs called WPA, CCC camps, TWA, etc. After Franklin Delano Roosevelt's inauguration, the first thing he did was fly to the mansion of Col. E. Mandell House and get further instruction from him on how to further depict this Rockland character portrayed in his novel, Philip Dru: Administrator.

This novel, written in 1913, is far more exciting than the lies perpetrated in Dan Brown's The Da Vinci Code. But, because it exposes what is going on in Washington, DC right now, it will never get the publicity of a "strong delusion." (2 Thes. 2:11) This book is ongoing even today, with our controlled mass news media that will create a race riot to prove once and for all democracy does not work. To restore law and order, the people in the book pleaded for a Socialistic Dictator by the name of Philip Dru. Socialist dictatorships are the agenda for the New Age.

Dan Smoot, former FBI agent, wrote a book called, The Invisible Government,⁴ in which he listed at the back of the book all the CFR members at that time. It was widely circulated during the Goldwater for President campaign.

Virtually every politician today is both a Freemason and a card carrying member of CFR. No longer can an Abraham Lincoln rise from obscurity to the White House. Rather, they may rise from a casket in the Skull and Bones at Yale, swearing a Luciferian oath. George W. Bush broke that oath. If you can't trust a Skull and Bonesman, whom can you trust? This is why there is such hatred of George W. Bush.

Public Enemy #1:

The International Banker was birthed by an Adam Weishaupt convert to the doctrines of the Illuminati, Mayer Amschel Rothschild, a Freemason.

Mother Lodge – London ⁵

These are a type of the three (European) frogs that conquered Protestant America. “And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon...For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world.” (Rev. 16:13-14) “And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.” (Matt. 24:14)

When Jesus was asked the question, “Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?” (Matt. 24:3), He did not say the “sign” was the preaching of the gospel to the ends of the world. Rather, Jesus pointed to the appearance of the false Christ's as the “sign.” “Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ” (Matt. 24:4-5), through these family-owned, non-profit religious incorporations, such as the televangelists on TBN.

Is not this display of religion on your Christian television a picture of Laodicea? “Because thou sayest, I am rich (the prosperity gospel), and increased with goods, and have need of nothing.” (Rev. 3:17) It is to this church that the biblical Jesus is left outside the door. “Behold, I stand at the door, and knock.” (Rev. 3:20) This is a perfect picture of the Captain, as well, using my website, www.shipofzion.com, as a knocker, trying to get someone's attention that a flood of iniquity is coming! Who shall be able to stand? The Captain keeps on knocking; no one is left behind. Without the Holy Ghost and fire (Matt. 3:11), you'll drown in this flood of iniquity.

Did I satisfy you, Barry, as to who I am? Shalom, The Cpt.
